

GRAND RAPIDS TRIBUNE.

Grand Rapids, Wisconsin, Wednesday, May 23, 1906.

VOL. XXXIII, NO. 1

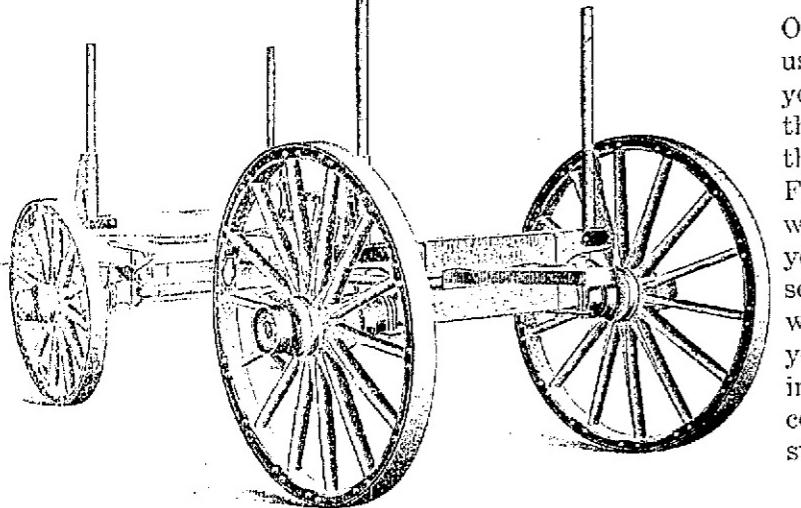

DRUMB & SUTOR, Publishers.

OUR MOTTO.
"WORKMANSHIP and QUALITY"

Where are they more necessary than in a wagon?

Let us Show
you Samples and give you References.

Or let us show you through the Factory where you can see the wagon
you buy in construction

Qualities to be found in no other wagon.

For sale by

For Sale by

Centralia Hardware Co.
Grand Rapids, Wisconsin.

At our big sale means Dollars to you.

A LARGE 6 HOLE STEEL RANGE

Prices Reduced From

$25 to $19.

The Johnson
&
Hill Company

Clermont No. 9 Cook, was $17.00 now $15.00

Same as above with larger oven and reservoir,
was $20.00 now $17.00

Made from new material—joints—hand fitted, made to save wood.

Hardware Department.

Profit Sharing Bonds in all Departments

ASK FOR A CATALOG FREE.

Johnson & Hill Co.
DEPARTMENT STORES.

Exhibited a Voting Machine.

An agent had for exhibition in this city on Saturday, an Abbott voting machine, which he was explaining of the public that seemed interested in the matter. The machine is a simple affair, and yet accomplished the object in a much surer manner than can ever be done by a pencil and piece of paper, and it has the advantage to having all the votes counted when the polls are closed at night, all that is necessary being to copy the totals from the registers on the back of the machine.

The names of the different candidates are arranged on slides that fit in a large frame, and then are so arranged that all those of one party occupy a space straight up and down in the frame. By means of a bar on the side all of the names can be pushed over at once and a whole party ticket voted for with one motion, or after the party ticket is pushed into place any of the names can be changed by sliding others along in their places, and thus either one or any number can be changed, allowing the voter to cast any kind of a split ticket that he desires. When the names are in place a button is pushed that votes the names that are in the voting space, rings a bell and locks the machine, so that the same ticket cannot be voted again. As the voter leaves the booth the inspector pulls a lever, which places all of the names back in the original position, and it is ready for the next voter.

The machines cost $100 each, and while it would cost considerably to equip a city of this size with the apparatus, it would save something each year, as there would not be a need of so many men at the polling place, neither would it be necessary to print ballots for each voting precinct in the city, which would also amount to considerable.

Another advantage is that there would be no question as to how a man wanted to vote. There would be no defective ballots to be claimed by both candidates, and as soon as the voting was over the ballots would all be counted.

Wisconsin State Civil Service.

APPLICANTS WANTED.

Competitive examinations will be held soon to secure suitable eligible lists for the following positions:

Carpenters in state penal and charitable institutions, and in the State University. Vacancies now exist which must be filled as a result of this examination. Salaries now in hospitals $50.00 per month and maintenance. At the State University $28 cents an hour.

Plumbers and steam-fitters. One position in the university must be filled at once. Salary $75.00 per month.

Masons, electricians, machinists, painters. Salaries $75.00 per month.

Messenger boy at the university.

One position. Age preferred 16 to 18 years.

Must be able to write a fair hand.

Must be trustworthy and intelligent. $18.00 to $20.00 a month.

Farm superintendent. One position at the State University is now open at a salary of from $1000 to $1200 and house rent.

Superintendent of construction.

Two vacancies now exist under the appointment of the State Board of Control. Compensation $100 a month.

Candidates must be practical mechanics, must be able to understand specifications and plans of buildings and must be good judges of building material.

Family officer and matron in the Industrial school at Waukesha. Candidates must be man and wife without children dependent upon them. The family officer must be a qualified teacher. The matron must be an efficient housekeeper.

Attendants in hospitals for Insane and feeble minded. Positions are now open to both men and women.

Salaries for women range from $15.00 to $25.00 a month and maintenance.

Salaries for men from $21.00 to $35.00 a month and maintenance. No written examination for this position will be required.

Physicians in state penal and charitable institutions. Salaries range from $75.00 to $100 a month and maintenance.

Candidates should apply AT ONCE to the secretary of the State Civil Service Commission, Madison, Wis., for blanks and for printed information.

DO NOT DELAY.

We Will Celebrate the Fourth.

May Wheeler reports that we are going to have a Fourth of July celebration this year, and that it will start a bonfire. It is the intention to start early enough in the matter so that attractions may be secured for the occasion before they are all engaged by others, and thus it will be possible to do better along this line than has been the case on several occasions in the past, when the matter of celebrating was taken up at the last minute and it was found that it was too late to secure anything of any value.

Funeral of Albert Heiniko.

The remains of Albert Heiniko, a former resident of this city, were brought here for burial last week and the funeral occurred on Friday. Mr. Heiniko, who was afflicted with consumption, had made his home in Colorado during most of the time during the past five years, when he went for the benefit of his health. He was 31 years old and is survived by his wife. The funeral was held under the auspices of the Modern Woodmen of America and the Fraternal Order of Eagles, of which he was a member. A large number of his old time friends followed the remains to their last resting place.

Plated at Mosine.

"Hank's Colts," a baseball team of more than ordinary ability, went to Mosine on Sunday and played the team at that place a game and the result was that the local team won the game by a score of 21 to 13.

Those composing the local team were Martinson, Voyer, Nash, Hayes, Early, Elmer, Eberhardt, Podalitz and Chelsay.

Have you weakness of any kind—stomach, back, or any organs of the body? Don't dope yourself with ordinary medicine. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is the supreme curative power. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.

Johnson & Hill Co.

AN AMATEUR PLAY.

The Darkened Window to be Put on by Home Talent During Fore Part of June.

The Young Ladies Society, under the direction of Prof. Curtis Bulger, will put on a home talent play at the opera house, June 10th and 11th, entitled "The Darkened Window." The play is said to be a good one, well fitted for the capabilities of an amateur company, and there is no question that it will be handled in a masterly manner by those who have been selected to take the various parts. Following is the cast and a synopsis of the play:

Synopsis.

Act I. Jenks Homestead. Bug Liniment. The Jolly Milkmaids. The gambling quarrel. The Fatal Shot. I'm blind! blind!

Act II. Cabin Arizona. Big Ingan and Chorus of Indian Princess. The Meeting of Mother and Child. The Death Trap. Not a moment too soon.

Act III. The Ball Room. The Brides Maids Chorus. The Wedding Bells that did not Ring.

Closing Chorus.

Curtain.

Old Jenks, old and blind—Bert C. Reyer

Jake Van Lobster, Bug Liniment—Chas. Laramie

John LeRoy, half breed—Edward Bassett

Gro. Curtis, The hero—J. J. Bellin

Uncle Jole, black and happy—Geo. LaBrache

Samie, Just foolish—Gorilla

Francis Bulger

Justice of the Peace—Ernest Young

Mrs. Jenks, heart courageous—Aurelia Bandelin

Lula Jenks, In the shadows—Colin McCarthy

Borda, Yest in love yet—Marlin Weir

Opera and Chorus Girls.

Alma Gaffney, Monica McCarthy, Gertie Boyer, Genevieve Carlson, Alice Sweeney, Agnes Matheny and others.

Decoration Day.

Decoration day services will be held in this city as usual May 30th.

Following is an outline of the program as now planned:

Post members will meet at G. A. R. hall 8:30 o'clock a.m.

The procession will start for the cemetery at 9:30 sharp from the court house, headed by the city band, and march in the following order: Band, Relief Corps, Wood County Post, Civic societies, school children and citizens. The services will be held over the grave of the late C. J. Danem, after which the Post will accompany any of the civic societies and assist in any services they may desire, after which all will return to the city in the same order as before named.

The Relief Corps will serve dinner at G. A. R. hall at 2:30 and at 2 p.m. members of Post and Relief Corps will meet at G. A. R. hall, and headed by the band, will march to the opera house, where an interesting program will be rendered in accordance with the ritual of the G. A. R.

Louis A. Bauman will deliver the oration.

Conrad M. S. Pratt will be marshal of the day and give full directions during the parade.

There will be a committee at the

G. A. R. hall to take charge of the flowers and everybody is requested to bring some flowers in shape of wreath or bouquet.

T. J. Cooper,

Post Commander.

Searching for a Soldier's Grave

For some time past the members of the G. A. R. post in this city have been searching for the grave of Moses A. Quick, an old soldier who died in this city some eighteen or nineteen years ago. They have a headstone for the grave and want to place it in its position, but up to date have been unable to discover where he was buried.

At the time of his death Mr. Quick was a resident of Pittsville, but when taken sick was brought to this city for treatment, but later died at the Commercial house. Members of the post who were in this city at that time are certain that the remains were interred in the local cemetery, but are unable to tell anything more about it.

Should this item meet the eye of any person who remembers anything concerning the matter or who knows where Mr. Quick was buried, he will confer a favor on the local post if he will communicate with Mr. Cooper or some other member and give them any information that will lead to the marking of the grave.

Memorial Services.

The members of Wood County Post and the Woman's Relief Corps will attend memorial day services at the

M. E. church in this city Sunday,

May 27th.

A special sermon will be given on this occasion and appropriate selections by the choir. All comrades and members of the Relief Corps are requested to meet at the G. A. R. hall at 10 o'clock sharp and go to the church in a body. Sermon at 10:30 o'clock.

Death of John McCarthy.

John McCarthy, one of the old residents of the city, died on Sunday morning after an illness extending over several months. He was prostrated with a stroke of paralysis some time ago, and from this never fully recovered, altho he was able to sit up and about at times. Last week he was taken seriously ill, and he gradually sank until the end came.

Mr. McCarthy was born in Prince Edward county, Canada, sixty-nine years ago on the 1st of last March.

In 1851 he came to the United States and located at Watertown. Later he moved to Portage, at which place he learned his trade. He came to Grand Rapids in 1860, and has since made his home in this city.

He was married to Louise McCormick in 1862, and they had twelve children, six boys and six girls, all of which survive him. They are

Mrs. McGrath of Birnam, Mrs.

Mike Lemens of this city, Mrs.

James Connors of Thorp, Mrs. Winnie McGrath of Stanley, Mrs. Frank

Sheehan of Milwaukee, John of Bal-

lerton, N. D., and Emmett, Edward,

Marcellus, Justin, Lorraine and George

of this city. All of the children were at home to attend the last rites excepting John of North Dakota.

He was married to Louise McCormick in 1862, and they had twelve

children, six boys and six girls, all

of which survive him. They are

Mrs. McGrath of Birnam, Mrs.

You always get full value in L. C. Spiegel's Furniture, and we assure you that he deals in Lewis' Furniture, Peoria, Ill.

Always be sure you are right, and you will make lots of enemies.

Cordial Pen—overcome constipation, sick headache, fever and other diseases.

Gentleman is seldom bothered with books keeping him.

CORDIAL INVITATION

ADDRESSED TO WORKING GIRLS

Mrs. Barrows Tells How Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Helps Working Girls

Girls who work are particularly liable to suffer from nervous disorders, especially those who are obliged to stand on their feet from morning until night in stores or factories.

Out in day and out in night toil she is often the head-winner of the family. Whether she is sick or well, whether it rains or shines she must go to her place of employment, perform the duties exacted of her, and be agreeable.

Among these are the symptoms of fatigue which are early manifest by weak and aching backs, pain in the lower back and lower part of the stomach. In consequence of frequent walking of the feet, periodical bodily pain and irregularity, especially those are fatigued by long spells with loss of appetite, the full life is a burden. At this symptomatic point to a dangerous stage of the female organism which can be easily and promptly cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Miss Abby F. Barrows, Nelsonville, Athens Co., Ohio, tells what this great medicine does for her. She writes:

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham, I am very sorry to tell you the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier have done for me. Before I took it I was weak and tired, had difficulty in breathing, had pain in my back, and suffered from constipation. I had been to several doctors, and they did me no good."

"Your medicine has made me well and strong. I can do most any kind of work without complaint, and my pants are all tight."

"I am in better health than I ever was, and feel it is healthiest, your remedies to all who suffer."

It is to such girls that Mrs. Pinkham holds out a helping hand and extends a cordial invitation to come to her with a few simple words of advice, or with a few drops of Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound for twenty-five years past, has given side women the secret of choice, the long-reign of success in treating woman's ills makes her a leader of active and old value to every working girl. Address, Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

A Positive CURE FOR CATARRH

Ely's Cream Balm

is quickly absorbed.

Good Relief from dryness and irritation.

Grand Rapids Tribune

BY DRUM & SUTOR.

Grand Rapids, Wis., May 1, 1906.

OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

VESPER.

Talk about ball games. Vesper played a triple game Sunday. Vesper bachelors vs. Vesper boys. First game, bachelors 3, boys 5; second game, bachelors 2, boys 1; third game, bachelors 3, boys 6.

Stahl & Goldthauemeyer completed their paint job Saturday.

The Velveteen Brick & Tile Co. expect to operate their plant this week.

Mr. & Mrs. G. H. Horn and Mr. & Mrs. O. C. Clark were at Auburn, to see the rains Sunday.

John Maxwell and family reside in our city now.

There will be a social dance at the Vesper opera house Saturday evening. Good music in attendance. All are welcome.

Ohio Laxative Fruit Syrup is best for women and children. Its mild action and pleasant taste makes it preferable to violent purgatives, such as pills, tablets, etc. Get the booklet and a sample of Orinco at John E. Daly's, the druggist.

It is to be remembered that next Sunday will be another interesting day at the ball grounds if good weather prevails.

BIRON.

Mr. and Mrs. Porch of Sigel were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kappa Sunday.

Misses Delta and Portia Polk and Martha Akey were shopping in your city Saturday.

Misses Gene and Ernest Grotewold were seen in this place Sunday. There must be something quite fascinating here that attracts the young men.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Akey spent Sunday at Rudolph.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver DuMars drove thru this place Sunday.

Mrs. A. LaVaque has had another attack of her lingering illness. Everyone is anxious for her recovery. Only two more weeks of school! We need not wonder why all the children are wearing broad smiling nowdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Fisher and children spent Sunday at Rudolph, the guests of the laters' parents.

Mrs. R. Shattuck of Waupaca was visiting her sister, Mrs. A. LaVaque, the past week.

NEKOOSA.

(From the Times.)

The Nekoosa-Saratoga ferryboat will probably be ready to go into the water by next Saturday, work on its construction being now well under way under the supervision of H. E. Herrick. The boat will be 16 feet wide instead of 18 as was at first proposed, because of the delay which would occur in waiting for the material for a boat of that size, while the narrower boat could be commenced at once.

It is considered that in feet it is wide enough to accommodate the traffic and being that much smaller it will be a little easier handled.

Wednesday morning occurred the wedding of Mr. Lewis Simmon, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Simmon, and Miss Mary Romanski, of Junction City, the happy event taking place at the Sacred Heart Catholic church in this city, Rev. Jos. Feldmann performing the ceremony.

J. M. Brazeau returned Sunday evening from a trip to the state of Washington, where he spent several weeks at Asotin visiting his brother, Mr. Benzeau, enjoyed the vacation very much and it helped his health a great deal.

MERHAN.

Miss Elsie Fagan of Big Flats visited at the home of A. E. Pike last week.

M. H. Munger returned Thursday from Biron where he has been canvassing the past week.

S. E. Warner's children are sick with measles.

Frank Moron of Baena Vista was selling potatoe of which he has about eleven hundred bushel.

Our school is preparing to observe Decoration day in the usual way of speaking and singing. Mayer Hanna of Stevens Point and Rev. Miller will give an address.

Saul Gordis of Linwood is finishing up the woodwork on Mrs. Clendenning's house.

E. H. Cope of Plover was on business here Friday.

Miss Nellie Durfee returned to her home at Needham Monday. Her grandmother, Mrs. Deau, accompanied her.

Miss Elsie Fagan of Big Flats, who has been visiting at A. E. Pike's went to Stevens Point Monday where she intends to work for a while.

Matt Heinrich is breaking land for this week.

Misses Florence Manchester, Hattie Burke, Bess Bowersock and Isabel Netley and Messrs. Bennie Burke, and Ray Netley of Stevens Point, Knowlton and Linwood attended the birthday party of Dennis Parks Saturday night.

M. Wallace, who is running the ditcher for Mr. Eggert, has moved into Chas Shearer's new house below Bonsack.

F. B. Seymour, Capt. of the G. B. & W. and the roadmaster were looking over the road here last week.

VANDRIESEN.

Homer Wolcott is employed at work at L. C. Thorberg's at present.

Elmer Patman of Grand Rapids held services in the Methodist church Sunday morning, May 20th.

Glen Tottin left last Monday for Washington, where he will seek work until round for some time.

Miss Burham closed a successful term of school in Dist. No. 5 Friday, May 18th.

Ward Wolden of this place will put his stock of goods in his store this week.

W. F. Warren and son Roy, went to Nekoosa last Friday.

Elder Harvey held services at the Baptist church last Saturday evening, Sunday morning and Sunday evening. Our boys played ball at Veedum Sunday. Did not hear how the score stood.

Mrs. Will Armstrong of Neenah is visiting at the home of Mrs. Ella Hites this week.

Mrs. H. Winegarten was a shopper in our city the past week.

Not as Rich as Rockefeller. If you had all the wealth of Rockefeller, the Standard Oil magnate, you could not buy a better medicine for bowel complaints than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The most eminent physician cannot prescribe a better preparation for colic and diarrhoea, both in children and adults. The uniform success of this remedy has caused it to be superior to all others. It never fails and when reduced with water and sweetened, is pleasant to take. Every family should be supplied with it. Sold by John E. Druggist.

Advertising Rates.—For display matter a flat rate of 10 cents an inch is charged. The columns in The Tribune are 22 inches long, making a full page $2.40 for one insertion. All legal notices, cards of thanks, resolutions of respect, and all notices of entertainments, where an admission fee is charged will be published at 5 cents per line.

Entered at the Post Office at Grand Rapids, Wis., as second-class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

One Year.....$1.50

Six Months.....75

Advertising Rates.—For display matter a flat rate of 10 cents an inch is charged. The columns in The Tribune are 22 inches long, making a full page $2.40 for one insertion. All legal notices, cards of thanks, resolutions of respect, and all notices of entertainments, where an admission fee is charged will be published at 5 cents per line.

Chances and Contests.

(Wisconsin Herald.)

The democrats throughout the state are certainly showing greater interest in party matters than they have for some years past. The platform convention to be held in June, in Milwaukee, has raised the heretofore slumbering sensibilities of the rank and file of the entire party. The opportunity presented, to proclaim the fundamental doctrines of democracy, through regularly elected delegates chosen for this special purpose, is being embraced.

Chances are being arranged for in all the counties and good, old-time county conventions will be the result. It is up to the people to see that those men who are known to stand for the rank and file, for equal rights to all and special privileges to none, be sent to the state convention. Every democrat ought to go to the chances and enthusiastic county conventions should be the result. The democrats of every township in every Wisconsin county should interest themselves in sending to it that they have a voice in the coming county conventions. Aside from the matter of party pride, there is the important matter of party principle at stake.

That democratic state convention in June will be a memorable meeting.

DEXTERVILLE.

Locate for tax week.

We are having nice weather now. The gardens are all planted and every thing is lovely in this part of the town.

Mrs. Puttle and family left for Ingraham Thursday, where she will join her husband and make her future home. We are sorry to lose our neighbor but our loss is somebody's gain.

We notice Irwin Kilduff has a long face these days. Wonder what is the trouble Irwin. Hope you will not have a relapse.

Mrs. Anna Koeman is boarding at O. W. Bluhm's while her mother is employed as milliner at Grand Rapids.

Mr. Simpson and wife left for Ingraham Tuesday, where she will join her husband and make her future home. A large crowd from here attended the dance at Baddeck Wednesday evening. All report a good time. We should say so by the noise they made in the early hours of the morning on their way.

Eddie Koeman is boarding at Mr. Simpson's, the esteemed section boss.

Mrs. Falstaff of Marsh, Wis., is the guest of Mrs. G. M. Bluhm.

Mr. Palmer has moved into the house vacated by Mr. Puttin at the south side of this town, Main St. No. 3.

The Duxbury ball players went to Pittsville Sunday to beat the Pitts with boys but were sadly disappointed.

I understand Bill Hines was taken one in a mobile Sunday night and was left in the barn. Bill next time have them drive you to your room and not to the barn.

Mrs. Baynton of Pittsville was a visitor at Mrs. E. S. Hites Tuesday.

The many friends of Mrs. Morrison were pleased to hear of her accidental death which occurred on or about her arrival at Washington. There were thirteen or fourteen that formed the party that left here on the 7th of this month with the intention of making their future homes there. It seems they were obliged to make a transfer with teams in order to make connections at some point on their route, the team he was riding with, by some unknown cause was frightened and ran away, throwing Mrs. Morrison out and breaking some of her ribs and fracturing her skull, which caused death. Her daughter Mrs. Bronson and family have the sympathy of their many friends in the loss of their mother.

John Monagan will plant the vacant lots of L. E. Miller's land on the east side of the river to cemeteries this season.

Mr. Bailey and family of Chillicothe are visiting with Mr. Bluhm's family for a few days.

The many friends of Homer Taggart were quite surprised to hear of his marriage. We are informed he has a charming little wife and expects to locate out in Dakota, where he is at present. Your many friends wish you both a pleasant journey thru life.

Miss Agnes Keenan spent Sunday under the parental roof, returning to her duties Monday morning.

The Simpson family and John Kidd attended a wedding at Pittsville Sunday.

Our boys played ball at Veedum Sunday. Did not hear how the score stood.

Mrs. Will Armstrong of Neenah is visiting at the home of Mrs. Ella Hites this week.

Mrs. H. Winegarten was a shopper in our city the past week.

Not as Rich as Rockefeller.

If you had all the wealth of Rockefeller, the Standard Oil magnate, you could not buy a better medicine for bowel complaints than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The most eminent physician cannot prescribe a better preparation for colic and diarrhoea, both in children and adults. The uniform success of this remedy has caused it to be superior to all others. It never fails and when reduced with water and sweetened, is pleasant to take. Every family should be supplied with it. Sold by John E. Druggist.

Advertising Rates.—For display matter a flat rate of 10 cents an inch is charged. The columns in The Tribune are 22 inches long, making a full page $2.40 for one insertion. All legal notices, cards of thanks, resolutions of respect, and all notices of entertainments, where an admission fee is charged will be published at 5 cents per line.

Entered at the Post Office at Grand Rapids, Wis., as second-class mail matter.

County Board Proceedings

Continued from last week.

In Marshfield, in the fall of 1906, fair at Marshfield, the sum of $100,000 was appropriated to aid the chairman and clerk of the county board to be used for the construction of a bridge or culvert on the county road No. 50 east, between the two roads, the sum of $100,000.

Mr. Brown moved the adoption of Roll called on same:—M. M. Lochner, E. M. Denning, Michael Wagner, Henry Feichlein, Michael Krings, William Hooper, E. E. Eichstadt, Ed. Witzel, G. Brown, W. F. Noltner, J. Jenkins, E. C. Provest, J. C. Eastman, J. J. Larson, Simon W. Lund, Herman Ross, Geo. H. Conklin, F. P. Hinrichsen, Total 42 Ayes.

Moved by Mulroy that this Board adjourn until tomorrow at 9 o'clock. Geo. W. Davis, Chairman.

We further submit herewith to your Honorable Body, a draft of an ordinance and recommend its passage, all of which is respectfully submitted.

Carried.

Mr. Bennett moved that the reading of the journal be dispensed with.

Resolution of training school was read and discussed.

Moved by Mr. Denning that the amendment to the matter of training school be laid over until regular session.

Roll called on the amendment:—Ayes: M. M. Lochner, J. C. Kieffer, R. A. Connor, A. L. Williams, C. I. Morrison, A. E. Germer, P. N. Christensen, Jacob Specht, Fred W. Pollard, O. G. Lindemann, A. F. Mercer, E. M. Denning, Michael Wagner, Henry Feichlein, Michael Krings, William Hooper, Ed. Witzel, G. Brown, W. F. Noltner, J. Jenkins, E. C. Provest, J. C. Eastman, F. P. Hinrichsen, Total 23 Ayes.

Moved by Mulroy that this Board adjourn until tomorrow at 9 o'clock. Geo. W. Davis, Chairman.

We further submit herewith to your Honorable Body, a draft of an ordinance and recommend its passage, all of which is respectfully submitted.

Carried.

Mr. Bennett moved that the reading of the journal be dispensed with.

Resolution of training school was read and discussed.

Moved by Mr. Denning that the amendment to the matter of training school be laid over until regular session.

Roll called on the amendment:—Ayes: M. M. Lochner, J. C. Kieffer, R. A. Connor, A. L. Williams, C. I. Morrison, A. E. Germer, P. N. Christensen, Jacob Specht, Fred W. Pollard, O. G. Lindemann, A. F. Mercer, E. M. Denning, Michael Wagner, Henry Feichlein, Michael Krings, William Hooper, Ed. Witzel, G. Brown, W. F. Noltner, J. Jenkins, E. C. Provest, J. C. Eastman, F. P. Hinrichsen, Total 23 Ayes.

Moved by Mulroy that this Board adjourn until tomorrow at 9 o'clock. Geo. W. Davis, Chairman.

We further submit herewith to your Honorable Body, a draft of an ordinance and recommend its passage, all of which is respectfully submitted.

Carried.

Mr. Bennett moved that the reading of the journal be dispensed with.

Resolution of training school was read and discussed.

Moved by Mr. Denning that the amendment to the matter of training school be laid over until regular session.

Roll called on the amendment:—Ayes: M. M. Lochner, J. C. Kieffer, R. A. Connor, A. L. Williams, C. I. Morrison, A. E. Germer, P. N. Christensen, Jacob Specht, Fred W. Pollard, O. G. Lindemann, A. F. Mercer, E. M. Denning, Michael Wagner, Henry Feichlein, Michael Krings, William Hooper, Ed. Witzel, G. Brown, W. F. Noltner, J. Jenkins, E. C. Provest, J. C. Eastman, F. P. Hinrichsen, Total 23 Ayes.

Moved by Mulroy that this Board adjourn until tomorrow at 9 o'clock. Geo. W. Davis, Chairman.

We further submit herewith to your Honorable Body, a draft of an ordinance and recommend its passage, all of which is respectfully submitted.

Carried.

Mr. Bennett moved that the reading of the journal be dispensed with.

Resolution of training school was read and discussed.

BANKING IS FOR ALL THE PEOPLE

but all the people do not know it. Ninety per cent of the world's business is done with checks and he who does not use them is at a disadvantage. Only a small amount of money is necessary to open an account at this bank. Our arrangements are of equal advantage to farmers.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK Grand Rapids, Wis.

Cement Work

We have a large quantity of Portland Cement which was bought before the rise, and it pays you to call up $4 and see how cheap we can lay your sidewalks. We put in basements, and do all kinds of cement work.

Bossert Bros. & Co. Grand Rapids, Wis.

COAL ... AND... Wood

See F. E. Kellner for the Best
TELEPHONE 305.

MISS MARY LYNCH

French and German Instruction
323 Third Street Grand Rapids, Wis.

ORSON P. COCHRAN.

Piano Tuner.

Best of work guaranteed. Call telephone 23:
at the house. 147 Third Ave. N.

Office Phone 234.

W. MELVIN RUCKLE, M. D.

Practice limited to Eye,
Ear, Nose and Throat.

Glasson fitted recently. Eye and Ear Surgeon to Review Hospital. Office in Wood County bank building.

J. J. JEFFREY,

Lawyer.

Law and Collections, Commercial and Probate law. Office over Gross & Lyons.

DR. D. A. TELFER,

Dentist.

Office over Wood County National Bank on the East Side, Grand Rapids, Wis.

DR. A. B. CRAWFORD,

Dentist.

High grade service at reasonable fees. Office in Remond Building on the East Side, Grand Rapids, Wis.

DR. A. L. RIDGMAN,

Physician and Surgeon.

Telephone No. 23 Residency, phone No. 23
Office over Dr. Billings Drug Store on West Side, Grand Rapids, Wis.

DR. W. D. HARVIE,

Physician and Surgeon.

Specialist of eye, nose and throat. Glasses soaredly fitted. Office over Dr. Billings drug store West Side, Grand Rapids, Wis.

J. R. RAGAN,

Licensed Undertaker

and Embalmer.

Successor to G. W. Baker. Store phone 305
Night Phone 305. East Grand Rapids, Wis.

JOHN A. GAYNOR,

Attorney at Law.

Office over the Postoffice on the East Side. Will practice in all courts.

WIPPERMAN & HAMBRECHT

Attorneys at Law.

Office on east side, over Wood County National Bank, Grand Rapids, Wis.

W. J. CONWAY,

Attorney at Law.

Money loaned. Real estate bought and sold.
Offices in Court House, East Side, and Mac-Kinnon Block, West Side, Grand Rapids, Wis.

GOGGINS & BRAZEAU,

Attorneys at Law.

Office in the MacKinnon Block on the West side, Grand Rapids, Wis.

B. M. VAUGHAN,

Attorney at Law.

Money loaned. Real estate bought and sold.
Gardner Block, East Side, Grand Rapids, Wis.

D. D. CONWAY,

Attorney at Law.

Law, Loans and Collections. We have $3,000 which will be loaned at a low rate of interest.
Office over Dr. Billings Drug Store, East Side,
Grand Rapids, Wis.

F. G. GILKEY AGENCY,

Insurance.

Fire, Life and Accidents. Office w. G. W.
Paine at east end of bridge, Grand Rapids, Wisconsin.

W. E. WHEELEN,

Attorney at Law.

Office in the Italy Block on the East Side,
Grand Rapids, Wis.

D. W. HITCHCOCK,

Attorney at Law.

MacKinnon Block, Grand Rapids, Wisconsin

NATWICK & CARHART

Licensed

Embalmers & Funeral Directors

—Telephones —

Office 384 Garfield 118

Natwick 213

HARRIET WILLIAMS

Teacher of Piano

Telephone 293 Studio - Oak St

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

—Mureco all colors at Daly's.
—Bicycle goods and repairing at Krieger's.

E. S. Reine was a Marshfield visitor on Saturday.

Lloyd Fowler spent Sunday at his home in Manitowoc.

Ernest Lemke spent Sunday at his home in Merrill.

Miss Minnie Gets spent Sunday
with friends at Almond.

Mrs. Anna Keenan spent Sunday
at her home in Dexterville.

Mrs. D. D. Conway spent Sunday with relatives in Minneapolis.

Miss Grace Parker spent Sunday
at her home in St. Paul.

Miss Mollie Stahl was on the sick list a few days the past week.

Roy A. L. Putnam went to Portage on Saturday to spend Sunday.

Sam Church made a business trip to Fond du Lac on Saturday.

Mrs. Patrick Conway spent Sunday with relatives in Minneapolis.

John Parrish was in Milwaukee the latter part of the week on business.

—“Electric Flat Irons,” a household necessity. See Dougherty's.

Judge Charles Hall of Marshfield had business in the city on Saturday.
Redmen Joyce of Babcock is visiting relatives in the city this week.

—Victor talking machines at Daly's.

Alvin Hietzel of Almond was in the city a few days this week on business.

Mrs. Wm. Kenyon of Winona this week.

Miss Stilla Laramie has accepted a position as office girl at J. Farley's.

Miss Mattie Pronom spent Saturday and Sunday visiting in Wausau.

John Maxwell of Vesper was a business visitor in this city Monday.

Alfred Hanson of this city spent Sunday with relatives in Minneapolis.

—All bicycles sold at cost at Krieger's.

Francis and Leon Barard of Wausau are guests at the La. Barard home this week.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. M. H. Jackson on Friday afternoon.

Atty. E. G. Pars of Marshfield attended court the fore part of the week.

Frank Cameron of Milwaukee was in the city between trains on Saturday.

—Wall paper all kinds at Daly's.

Walter Pough was over from Plainfield and spent Sunday visiting friends.

Harry Nugent of Wausau transacted business in the city a few days the past week.

Warren Cunningham of Neenah was in the city over Sunday the guest of Fred Kerr.

August Flipp of Vesper was a pleasant caller at the Tribune office on Friday.

Dr. J. J. Loosz and daughter Marie spent Sunday at Green Bay the guest of relatives.

W. L. Elson of Stevens Point was in the city a few days the past week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. John Woyers spent Sunday and Monday visiting relatives in Rudolph.

—Fishing tackle all kinds at Daly's.

Miss Imez Bowan of Dexterville is spending a few days at the Wm.
Reeves home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cypress and baby spent Sunday with relatives at Stevens Point.

Miss Nellie Mitchell of Plainfield is a guest of Miss Fern Dougherty for several weeks.

Mrs. Wm. Styles of Babcock was in the city visiting relatives a few days this week.

Mrs. Carl Olson is spending a few days with relatives in New London and Green Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Andrews of this city spent Sunday at the Parker home in Stevens Point.

J. Broker, who is attending college at Ripon, spent a few days with friends in the city.

Frank Smolark expects to leave next week for Phillips where he will work in a sawmill.

—Base ball goods at Daly's.

Miss Anna Bamburg, who is teaching at Sherry, spent Saturday with her parents in this city.

Frank Abil has returned to his work at the Johnson & Hill Co. store
after a two weeks illness.

Mrs. E. M. Alerton has been quite sick for the past week, but is somewhat better at this writing.

John Ernsler returned last week from Rhinelander where he has been working for the past two months.

Miss Anna Hayward of Neenah arrived in the city on Saturday to spend a few weeks with relatives.

Charles Mullen, who has been working in Illinois for some time past, engaged in putting up brick stacks, returned to this city last week. He states that he will probably remain at home for a time.

Miss Anna Hayward of Neenah
arrived in the city on Saturday to spend a few weeks with relatives.

Miss Mary Trudell of Sigel sold her handsome sordid driver Saturday
Fred Schinabel, considerator $175.

Mrs. Paul Kropf of Vesper was a pleasant caller at the Tribune office
on Monday while in the city shopping.

—Electric irons last longer, more economical. Give better results than the ancients. Call at Dougherty's.

Major Minahan of Green Bay has ordered all slot machines taken out and prohibited the shaking of dice for cigars.

The Wisconsin Central company has stationed an engine and crew in this city and it will be their duty to do the switching between here and Neenah for the different mills that receive wood and other stuff over the water.

—Ironing done in one half the time
with Dougherty's “Electric Irons.”

Miss Emma Dolan has accepted a position as clerk in the dry goods department at the Johnson & Hill Co.
store.

—Ironing done in one half the time
with Dougherty's “Electric Irons.”

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Colcord arrived in the city last week and expect to make their home here in the future.

—We have a fine selection of wedding rings. Daily Drug & Jewelry Co.

Miss Ella Wachs has resigned her position as office girl at J. Farley's and is now working at the pickle factory on Saturday.

Mrs. Arthur Arpin and children have returned to their home in Atlanta after a week visit with relatives.

Mrs. J. D. Lauwet was prostrated with an attack of paralysis on Monday morning and has since been quite sick.

Lorenz Reitan of Vesper was in the city on Tuesday and while here favored the Tribune office with a pleasant call.

Miss Grace Parker spent Sunday
with friends at Almond.

Mrs. Anna Keenan spent Sunday
at her home in Dexterville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Conway are spending a few days at the G. O. Hayward home.

Miss Minnie Gets spent Sunday
with friends at Almond.

Miss Anna Keenan spent Sunday
at her home in Dexterville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Conway are spending a few days at the G. O. Hayward home.

Miss Minnie Gets spent Sunday
with friends at Almond.

Miss Anna Keenan spent Sunday
at her home in Dexterville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Conway are spending a few days at the G. O. Hayward home.

Miss Minnie Gets spent Sunday
with friends at Almond.

Miss Anna Keenan spent Sunday

GRAND RAPIDS TRIBUNE

BY DRUMM & SUTOR.

GRAND RAPIDS, WISCONSIN.

Rural Water Supply.

When such great sums of money are being expended by city government that the inhabitants of towns may have a sanitary water supply, it seems strange that the supply in rural towns should receive little or no attention. This latter population may seem relatively insignificant, but according to the last census it comprises about 10,000,000 souls. This means that 40,000,000 people are drinking the water most available, without a thought of its sanitary condition. These various sources of supply, whether wells, springs, or small streams, are similarly uncleaned and unsatisfactory drinking water. The rate of mortality in the country are very indefinite, but even these show that the rural population is not free from disease, which would be. And though everywhere the rural death rate is lower than the urban death rate, yet the lowering in the country has not been as great as in the city. An examination of typhoid statistics shows that the death rate of other diseases is generally lower in the country than in the city, but the prevalence of typhoid is almost equal to if not greater in the rural districts than in the cities. Several instances have been reported which show the rural typhoid rate to be ten times greater than the urban rate for the same district. To particularize, a certain district in central Pennsylvania proves this fact. It is made up of a rural population with 100 inhabitants to the square mile. It is a region of fine farms, wild mountain and woods, country residences and picnics, groves. And in this valley there has been much typhoid fever as in the city of Philadelphia. Sad as this condition is, there seems to be no remedy for it. The source of a city water supply are few, and the city government easily controls the conditions affecting them; what can be done when the sources of supply are numbered by the thousands? A number of men and an army of chemists would not be sufficient to give the water equal to the country supply that is given to that of the city.

Hillite Immigrants.

Obeying the immigration bill now before Congress to raise the tax from two to five dollars a head the Philadelphia Record says a chief complaint of the petition is not that the immigrants are physically weak, but that they are too strong. It goes on to say: "As for the educational test, which prescribes that every immigrant over 16 years shall be able to read, four experience shows that this small degree of culture is not necessary for labor in the fields. In railroad grading, tunneling, street cleaning and other pursuits with which the mass of immigrants begin life on these shores. To ward off the political evils of illiteracy the states most favored by them (Pennsylvania, for example), have only to provide, as Massachusetts and most of the southern states have done, against putting the ballot in the hands of people who cannot read it. But by a curious contradiction the general facilities for enabling illiterate, native and naturalized, white and black, to exercise the suffrage are afforded by Pennsylvania and other states in which most of the hillite immigrants live. If judgment, if these states should apply the educational test to the elective franchise there would be little cause for complaint concerning the illiteracy of illiterates from Europe."

Our Army Is Small.

In the sense in which the term is used in Europe, this country has no military reserve. The two military forces recognized by law and custom are the regular army and the "militia." The regular army is a comparatively small force, taking into consideration the size, population and position among nations this country has the smallest standing army in the world. For many years preceding the war with Spain our regular army numbered only about 15,000 men. With the outbreak of hostilities with Spain came a very large increase. After the close of the conflict, however, there was a steady, rapid reduction, until the American standing army to-day numbers only about 8000 men. Of these about one-fourth, or in the neighborhood of 15,000, are in the Philippines. A small force is maintained in Alaska, and a still smaller in Hawaii, leaving, in round numbers, 40,000 soldiers of the regular army in this country, or an increase of only about 15,000 since the days preceding the conflict with Spain.

Reverend Mr. Miller, a preacher of Calaisville, Mo., announced to his congregation last Sunday morning that a collection for foreign missions was about to be taken up, but that he wanted no member to give a cent unless he had already paid his butcher, baker, grocer and printer. "Pay your local debts first," he said, "and then pay the debt you owe to the heathen." Report has it that the mission collection was small, but the respect of the congregation for the preacher was large.

Guard Against Lynching. Crawford, Neb.—Sergeant John Reid, of the Tenth cavalry, who killed the regular army and the "militia," the regular army is a comparatively small force, taking into consideration the size, population and position among nations this country has the smallest standing army in the world. For many years preceding the war with Spain our regular army numbered only about 15,000 men. With the outbreak of hostilities with Spain came a very large increase. After the close of the conflict, however, there was a steady, rapid reduction, until the American standing army to-day numbers only about 8000 men. Of these about one-fourth, or in the neighborhood of 15,000, are in the Philippines. A small force is maintained in Alaska, and a still smaller in Hawaii, leaving, in round numbers, 40,000 soldiers of the regular army in this country, or an increase of only about 15,000 since the days preceding the conflict with Spain.

Accredited Directors. Anaconda, Mont.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Anaconda Copper Mining company Wednesday the former board of directors was reelected, with the exception that George H. Church was elected in place of A. C. Burrows.

Financier Dies Suddenly. San Francisco.—It had been decided by the clearing house banks of San Francisco that all San Francisco commercial banks will respond for business on May 25.

Killed in Religious War. Corinto, Montenegro.—There have been two days of fighting at the villages of Stogor and Barizte, in the district of Barizte, between Muslins and Christians on the one side and Christians on the other. Several persons were killed or wounded.

Three Vessels Are Lost. Berlin.—The Rundschau publishes a report of an accident at Reichenbach, resulting in the loss of three cutters, the Ingram, the Emilia and the Sophie Whistlet.

Venezuela Keeps Busy. Napoleon, Utah.—The Mormon church of Mount Veintiuno, Venezuela, exploded that the volcano is in slight eruption. Thicks vapors and sand are being expelled and the electrical phenomenon continues, but he says the situation is not grave.

Memorial Church Dedicated. Richmond, Ind.—The Reid Memorial United Presbyterian church, erected here by Daniel G. Reid, of New York, at a cost of a quarter of a million dollars, was dedicated Sunday.

When a man talks through his hat a woman may be pardoned for laughing in her sleeve.

THE PRESIDENT IS ASSAILED

DEATH OF CARL SCHURZ.

Noted Publicist Passes Away at His Home in New York—His Career.

Former Immediately Refutes Charges of Betraying Friendly Democrats—Cause of Accident.

Washington.—There was a series of sensational incidents in the senate Saturday afternoon, which culminated in a climax when President Roosevelt took the extraordinary step of telephoning a direct denial of charges made against him and his administration.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The incident included the reading of a written statement by Senator Tillman charging the president with betraying the Democratic senator, who had agreed to stand by him on the railroad rate bill with the understanding that the president would stick to his original position against an amendment permitting court review of the bill.

Following this Senator Bailey indulged in a violent attack on the president. He charged that the ex-president had surrendered his position advocating an effective measure, that he had abandoned his demands for tariff revision; that the president's arrangement of trusts had been made after his election and that he bore that that time he had been "silent as the grave" on the subject of regulation of the railroads. The senator closed with this statement:

"Let us have no more talk in the Senate and talk in the country about this iron man. He is clay, and very common clay at that."

Senator Tillman charged that President Roosevelt had asked ex-Senator Chandler to request that he rally enough Democratic votes to carry the Hepburn bill and save it from any injurious amendments. He said he had confided with the president, and that after having fulfilled his part of the agreement, the president deliberately backed down.

Senators Oliver, Clapp and Carter defended the president against these attacks, the former pointing to the president as "the most superb moral leadership the American people ever had." He also praised Senator Allton, who had, he said, been his guide and counselor throughout the whole consideration of the rate question. Mr. Carter said he believed the president had been consistently in favor of the house bill.

Mr. Carter, speaking for the president, said that the president had decided an unprofitably high tax on mining shares to small, rural enterprises above that the railroads were not necessary for labor in the fields. In railroad grading, tunneling, street cleaning and other pursuits with which the mass of immigrants begin life on these shores. To ward off the political evils of illiteracy the states most favored by them (Pennsylvania, for example), have only to provide, as Massachusetts and most of the southern states have done, against putting the ballot in the hands of people who cannot read it. But by a curious contradiction the general facilities for enabling illiterate, native and naturalized, white and black, to exercise the suffrage are afforded by Pennsylvania and other states in which most of the hillite immigrants live. If judgment, if these states should apply the educational test to the elective franchise there would be little cause for complaint concerning the illiteracy of illiterates from Europe."

Constantinople—Tabah Evacuated by Turkish Troops.

Philadelphia.—Before the Interstate commerce commission George W. Creighton, general supervisor of the Pennsylvania division of the Pennsylvania railroad admitted that he held stock in several coal companies and that the stock had been presented to him John M. Jamison of Greenbank, Pa., president of the Jamison Coal & Coke company, testified that his company had presented Pennsylvania road officials with stock in his company with the object of securing better treatment and facilities from the corporation. He also said that Robert McLean, now assistant to President Cassatt, had declined a proffer of stock, saying that he preferred the money. Mr. Jamison bought the stock back from him for $5,000.

A statement from ex-Senator Chandler was later given out by Senator Tillman in which the former reiterated the statements pronounced by President Roosevelt as "unusually fatidic."

Washington.—A lengthy statement bearing on the rate bill incident in the Senate was issued by the White house Monday evening. The president says that his own opinion that Mr. Allton's amendment in no way changed the scope of the court review as provided in the original Hepburn bill is also the opinion of Attorney General Moody and Secretary Root and that the adds that as to none of the amendments did he say to Mr. Chandler anything else than he should insist upon having them in the bill as a condition of his approval.

Washington.—Senator Tillman Tuesday took issue with the president in the Chandler controversy, declaring he left under obligations to defend ex-Senator Chandler and placed him right on the records. Senator Tillman refuted the statement made by the president that he did not send for Mr. Chandler. Senator Tillman said the letter from Mr. Root to Mr. Chandler invited the latter to visit the president.

Chicago Traction Companies Lose.

Chicago.—The traction companies in Chicago are left at the mercy of the city by the action of the United States supreme court. Monday, however, there was a steady, radical reduction, until the American standard army to-day numbers only about 8000 men. Of these about one-fourth, or in the neighborhood of 15,000, are in the Philippines. A small force is maintained in Alaska, and a still smaller in Hawaii, leaving, in round numbers, 40,000 soldiers of the regular army in this country, or an increase of only about 15,000 since the days preceding the conflict with Spain.

Daughter Kills Her Father.

Jacksonville, Fla.—A young woman, wife of Frank Emmett, a painter, is under arrest charged with killing her husband. Mrs. Emmett, who had sued for divorce, was getting dinner Tuesday when she was shot twice in the head from the open doorway.

Financier Dies Suddenly.

Crawford, Neb.—Sergeant John Reid, of the Tenth cavalry, who killed the regular army and the "militia," the regular army is a comparatively small force, taking into consideration the size, population and position among nations this country has the smallest standing army in the world. For many years preceding the war with Spain our regular army numbered only about 15,000 men. With the outbreak of hostilities with Spain came a very large increase. After the close of the conflict, however, there was a steady, rapid reduction, until the American standing army to-day numbers only about 8000 men. Of these about one-fourth, or in the neighborhood of 15,000, are in the Philippines. A small force is maintained in Alaska, and a still smaller in Hawaii, leaving, in round numbers, 40,000 soldiers of the regular army in this country, or an increase of only about 15,000 since the days preceding the conflict with Spain.

Accredited Directors.

Anaconda, Mont.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Anaconda Copper Mining company Wednesday the former board of directors was reelected, with the exception that George H. Church was elected in place of A. C. Burrows.

Financier Dies Suddenly.

San Francisco.—It had been decided by the clearing house banks of San Francisco that all San Francisco commercial banks will respond for business on May 25.

Killed in Religious War.

Corinto, Montenegro.—There have been two days of fighting at the villages of Stogor and Barizte, in the district of Barizte, between Muslins and Christians on the one side and Christians on the other. Several persons were killed or wounded.

Three Vessels Are Lost.

Berlin.—The Rundschau publishes a report of an accident at Reichenbach, resulting in the loss of three cutters, the Ingram, the Emilia and the Sophie Whistlet.

Venezuela Keeps Busy.

Napoleon, Utah.—The Mormon church of Mount Veintiuno, Venezuela, exploded that the volcano is in slight eruption. Thicks vapors and sand are being expelled and the electrical phenomenon continues, but he says the situation is not grave.

Memorial Church Dedicated.

Richmond, Ind.—The Reid Memorial United Presbyterian church, erected here by Daniel G. Reid, of New York, at a cost of a quarter of a million dollars, was dedicated Sunday.

When a man talks through his hat a woman may be pardoned for laughing in her sleeve.

THE PRESIDENT IS ASSAILED

BITTERLY ATTACKED BY SENATORS BAILEY AND TILLMAN.

Former Immediately Refutes Charges of Betraying Friendly Democrats—Cause of Accident.

Washington.—There was a series of sensational incidents in the senate Saturday afternoon, which culminated in a climax when President Roosevelt took the extraordinary step of telephoning a direct denial of charges made against him and his administration.

This latter population may seem relatively insignificant, but according to the last census it comprises about 10,000,000 souls. This means that 40,000,000 people are drinking the water most available, without a thought of its sanitary condition. These various sources of supply, whether wells, springs, or small streams, are similarly uncleaned and unsatisfactory drinking water. The rate of mortality in the country are very indefinite, but even these show that the rural population is not free from disease, which would be. And though everywhere the rural death rate is lower than the urban death rate, yet the lowering in the country has not been as great as in the city. An examination of typhoid statistics shows that the death rate of other diseases is generally lower in the country than in the city, but the prevalence of typhoid is almost equal to if not greater in the rural districts than in the cities. Several instances have been reported which show the rural typhoid rate to be ten times greater than the urban rate for the same district. To particularize, a certain district in central Pennsylvania proves this fact. It is made up of a rural population with 100 inhabitants to the square mile. It is a region of fine farms, wild mountain and woods, country residences and picnics, groves. And in this valley there has been much typhoid fever as in the city of Philadelphia. Sad as this condition is, there seems to be no remedy for it. The source of a city water supply are few, and the city government easily controls the conditions affecting them; what can be done when the sources of supply are numbered by the thousands? A number of men and an army of chemists would not be sufficient to give the water equal to the country supply that is given to that of the city.

The incident included the reading of a written statement by Senator Tillman charging the president with betraying the Democratic senator, who had agreed to stand by him on the railroad rate bill with the understanding that the president would stick to his original position against an amendment permitting court review of the bill.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The incident included the reading of a written statement by Senator Tillman charging the president with betraying the Democratic senator, who had agreed to stand by him on the railroad rate bill with the understanding that the president would stick to his original position against an amendment permitting court review of the bill.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The incident included the reading of a written statement by Senator Tillman charging the president with betraying the Democratic senator, who had agreed to stand by him on the railroad rate bill with the understanding that the president would stick to his original position against an amendment permitting court review of the bill.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The event is perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The Man on the Box

By HAROLD MacGRATH
Author of "The Green Cleek," "The Puppet Crown."

Copyright, 1909, The Doubt-Merrill Company.

CHAPTER V.—CONTINUED.

"Well, don't you dare to drag forth any of those foul corpses of college or our goon and baggage?" Jack glared furiously around the room toward the hill.

"My dear fellow, your wife wouldn't believe me no matter what I said about your character. Isn't that right, Charlie? Jack, you are a lucky dog. If there ever was one. A handsome wad who loves you, a kid, a fine home and plenty of horses. I wonder if you married her for her money?" Jack's eyes narrowed. He seemed to pause. "Yes, I believe I can do it, as far as I did it years ago."

"What?" I asked.

"Well, I hope you'll fall desperately in love with me, and that you will have a devil of a time winning the girl. You need something to sit on your vitals. I haven't the remotest idea if it means anything in the Russian language. I hope not."

"Awful brother, that?" Bob knocked the ashes from his cigar and glanced at me, which wasn't particularly恭敬. "Supposing I was in love, now, and that the girl had heaps of money, and all that?"

"And all that?" mimicked the elder brother. "What does 'and all that' mean?"

"Shut up!" Well, I hope you are in love, it gives you right. You've made more than one girl's heart ache, you good-for-nothing ruffian!"

Then he switched over to politics, and Robert became an interested listener. Quarter of an hour later the women returned, and certainly they made a picture which was most satisfactory to the masculine eye. Bob jumped to his feet and kissed them both a third. I factored the change to me, how pleased they looked! How a woman looks, beauty from them she loveth!

Well, William is in front with the carriage, the women are putting on their cloaks, and I am admiring the luxurious crimson fur-lined garment which brother Robert had sent to Nancy from Paris. You will see by this that we were not altogether a thoughtless lad, though. Mr. Robert, I leave you and your students to join the established orbit; for, after this night the world will never be the same, carefree, happy-go-lucky world. The race is free of the indignation! Youth must run its course, even as the eagle with broad wings flies on its way to join the sober river.

I dare say that we hadn't gone 20 minutes before Robert strolled out to the stable, only to return immediately with a length under his arm and a white horse he needed suddenly on his back. He was chuckling merrily to himself. "It will frighten the girls half to death. A gray horse and a bay, oh, I won't make any mistake. Let me see! I'll get about 12 cloches. That'll get me the best, just as the boys leave. This is the richest yet. I'll wager the others will be some talk sermons!" He continued chuckling as he helped himself to his brother's perfumes and some old Scotch. I don't know what book he found in the picture cases, some old rascal's memory books; for my brother's face was mottled in red.

We had left Mrs. Secretary-of-the-Interior's and were entering the red brick mansion on Connecticut Avenue, Ca. 68, lined both sides of the street, and mounted police patrolled in and down.

"Poor boy!" sighed Nancy. "I wonder if he'll be lonely. It's a shame to leave him home the very first night!"

"Why didn't he come, then?" Mrs. W. shrugged her polished shoulders.

"Oh, my dears and Scotch are fairly comforting," put in Jack, complacently. "Beckie Jane isn't at all bad looking—winking at me. 'What do you say, Charlie?'

But Charlie had not time to answer. The gray-haired, gray-whiskered ambassee was howling merrily to us. A dozen notable military and naval attaches nodded, and we passed on to the ball-room, where the orchestra was playing "A Summer Night in Sodom." In a moment Jack and his wife were lost in the maze of gleaming shoulders and white linen. It was a picture such as few men, even having witnessed it, can forget. Here were the great men in the great world; this man was an old rear-admiral, destined to become the nation's hero soon; there, a famous general of long and splendid service; celebrated statesmen, diplomats, financiers; a noted English duke; a son of the German Kaiser; a swart jape; a Chinaman with his peacock feather; tens of men whose lightest word was listened to by the four ends of the world; representatives of all the great kingdoms and states. The president and his handsome wife had just left us as we came, so we missed that formality which detracts from the magnificence of the ball-room.

"Who is that handsome young fellow over there, standing at the side of the Russian ambassador's wife?" asked Nancy, pressing my arm.

"Where? Oh, he's Count Karloff, for something that sounds like it, a wealthy Russian, in some way connected with the Russian government; a diplomat and a capital fellow, they say. I have never met him. . . . Hello! there's a stunning girl right next to him that I haven't seen before. . . . Where are you going?"

Nancy had dropped my arm and was gliding, kitty-corner fashion, across the floor. Presently she and the stunning girl had saluted each other after the impulsive fashion of American girls, and were playing cat-in-the-hat, to the amusement of those forlorners nearest. A nod, and I was threading my way to Nancy's side.

(To Be Continued.)

CHAPTER VI.

THE MAN ON THE BOX.

At 11:30 he locked up his book and took to his room the mysterious bundle which he had purchased from the stable. It contained the complete library of a groom. The clothes fitted rather snugly, especially across the shoulders. He stood before the pier-glass, and a compeion (not to say roguish) smile lit across his face. The black half-boots, the white doskin breeches, the brown brass-buttoned frock, and the white hat with the brown cockade.

Well, my word for it, he was the handsomest Jehu Washington ever turned out. With a grin he touched his hat to the reflection in the glass, and burst out laughing. His face was as smooth as a baby's for he had generously sacrificed his beard.

"I can hear him saying to himself: 'Lord, but this is a lark! I'll have to take another Scotch to screw up the edge of my nerve. Won't the boys laugh when they hear how I stirred the girls' frizzies?' Well, I'll have a little party here when they all get home. It's a good joke."

Mr. Robert did not prove much of a prophet. Many days were to pass as he centered his brother's house.

He strolled quiet from the place. He hadn't proceeded more than a block when he became aware of the fact that he hadn't a penny in his clothes. This discovery disquieted him, and he half turned about to go back. He couldn't go back. He had no key.

"Fshaw! I won't need any money," and he started off toward Connecticut Avenue. He dared not halt a car, and he would not have dared had he possessed the fare. Some one might recognize him. He walked briskly for ten minutes. The humor of the escapade appealed to him greatly, and he had all he could do to smother the frequent bursts of laughter which surged to his lips. He reached absentmindedly for his cigar-case. No money, no cigars.

"That's bad. Without cigar I'm likely to get nervous. Scraping off pegs, and asked if he might be regarded as a suitor."

"Well," said the father, "I have no objections to you. You seem to be an honest, industrious, healthy enough young fellow. I guess you can begin to pay your addressess if you want to. Understand, though, that I put out the lights at 10 o'clock."

"All right, sir," said the young man. "I'll be careful not to come along before that time."—Buffalo Enquirer.

Harmless Independence.

Rear Admiral Wilde, at a banquet given in his honor in Boston, desired to illustrate in some way a certain sort of humorous and harmless impudence that is found at its best in America.

"There was a young man," said Admiral Wilde, "and he desired to pay his addresses to a certain young lady. So, in a frank and honorable way, he called on the young lady's father, described his circumstances and pros-

"Isn't it glorious?" she began. "This is Miss Annesley, Charlie. Betty, Mr. Henderson." Miss Annesley looked mildly curious at Nancy who suddenly flushed. "We are to be married in the spring," she exclaimed stoutly, and I dare say that there was a different expression on my own face.

Miss Annesley gave me her hand, smiling. "You are a fortunate man, Mr. Henderson."

"Not the shadow of a doubt!" Miss Annesley, I frankly admitted on the back of my hat, was to Nancy, the handsomest girl I ever saw, and as I thought of Mr. Robert in his den at home, I sincerely wished I was. I was willing to advance the statement that had he known a pair of crutches would not have kept him away from No. 1300 Connecticut Avenue.

I found three chaises, and we sat down. There was, for me, very little opportunity to talk. Women always have so much to say to each other, even when they haven't seen each other within 24 hours. From time to time Miss Annesley glanced at me, and I was positive that Nancy was extolling my charms. It was rather embarrassing, and I was balling my gloves in a most dreadful fashion.

"Here you! What do you mean by running around like this. Lost your carriage boy?" I've a mind to run ye in. "You know the rules relat'g leavin' of yer boy in times like these. Been takin' a stickin', probably, an' they've sent yer back down a peg. Get a gatt on y' now."

Warburton laughed silently as he made for the sidewalk. The first man he plumped into was William—a very much worried William, too. Robert might have fallen on his neck for joy.

All was plain sailing now.

"Charming!" the count's wife was very pleasantly rolled. I could see by the way his gaze roved from Miss Annesley to Nancy that he was puzzled to decide which the nearer to his heart he had been.

"And all that?" mimicked the elder brother. "What does 'and all that' mean?"

"Shut up!"

"Well, I hope you are in love, it gives you right. You've made more than one girl's heart ache, you good-for-nothing ruffian!"

Then he switched over to politics, and Robert became an interested listener. Quarter of an hour later the women returned, and certainly they made a picture which was most satisfactory to the masculine eye. Bob jumped to his feet and kissed them both a third. I factored the change to me, how pleased they looked! How a woman looks, beauty from them she loveth!

Well, I hope you'll fall desperately in love with me, and that you will have a devil of a time winning the girl. You need something to sit on your vitals. I haven't the remotest idea if it means anything in the Russian language. I hope not."

"Charming!" the count's wife was very pleasantly rolled. I could see by the way his gaze roved from Miss Annesley to Nancy that he was puzzled to decide which the nearer to his heart he had been.

I found him a most engaging fellow, surprisingly well-informed on American topics. I credit myself with being a fairly good reader of faces, and, reading his as he kept it in Miss Annesley's direction, I began to worry about Mr. Robert's course of true love. There was a man who possessed a title, was handsome, rich, and of assured social position; I would take an extraordinary American girl to look oddly upon his attentions. By and by the two left us, Miss Annesley promising to call on Nancy.

"And where are you staying, Betty?"

"Father and I have taken Senator Blank's house in Chevy Chase for the winter. My horses are already in the stables. Do you ride?"

"I do."

"Then we shall have some great times together."

"Be sure to call. I want you to meet my brother."

"I believe I have," replied Miss Annesley.

"I mean my younger brother, a lieutenant in the army."

"Oh, then you have two brothers?"

"Yes," said Nancy.

"The dance is dying, Mademoiselle," said the count in French.

"Your arm, Monsieur. At revoir,

"Nancy."

"Poor Bobby!" Nancy folded her hands and sighed mournfully. "It appears to me that his love affair is not going to run very smooth. But isn't she just beautiful, Charlie? What color, what style!"

"She's a stunner. I'm forced to admit. Bobb'll never stand a ghost of a show against that Russian. He's a great social catch, and is backed by many keepers."

"How unfortunate we old not know that she would be here! Bobby would have met her at his best, and his best is more to my liking than the count's. He has a way about him that the women like. He's no laggard. Some money ought not to count with Betty. She is worth at least $250,000. Her mother left all her property to her, and her father acts only as trustee. Senator Blank's house rents for $3,000 the season. It's ready furnished, you know, and one of the handsomest homes in Washington. Besides, I do not trust these foreigners"—taking a remarkably abrupt curve, as it were.

"There's two B's in your bonnet, Nancy," I laughed.

"Never mind the B's; let us have the last of this wretched truth."

This is not my own true story; so shall bow off and permit my hero to follow the course of true love, which is about as rough-going as a thoroughfare as the many roads of life have to offer.

CHAPTER VI.

THE MAN ON THE BOX.

At 11:30 he locked up his book and took to his room the mysterious bundle which he had purchased from the stable.

It contained the complete library of a groom.

He stood before the pier-glass, and a compeion (not to say roguish) smile lit across his face.

"I mean my younger brother, a lieutenant in the army."

"Oh, then you have two brothers?"

"Yes," said Nancy.

"The dance is dying, Mademoiselle," said the count in French.

"Your arm, Monsieur. At revoir,

"Nancy."

"Poor Bobby!" Nancy folded her hands and sighed mournfully.

"It appears to me that his love affair is not going to run very smooth. But isn't she just beautiful, Charlie? What color, what style!"

"She's a stunner. I'm forced to admit. Bobb'll never stand a ghost of a show against that Russian. He's a great social catch, and is backed by many keepers."

"How unfortunate we old not know that she would be here! Bobby would have met her at his best, and his best is more to my liking than the count's. He has a way about him that the women like. He's no laggard. Some money ought not to count with Betty. She is worth at least $250,000. Her mother left all her property to her, and her father acts only as trustee. Senator Blank's house rents for $3,000 the season. It's ready furnished, you know, and one of the handsomest homes in Washington. Besides, I do not trust these foreigners"—taking a remarkably abrupt curve, as it were.

"There's two B's in your bonnet, Nancy," I laughed.

"Never mind the B's; let us have the last of this wretched truth."

This is not my own true story; so shall bow off and permit my hero to follow the course of true love, which is about as rough-going as a thoroughfare as the many roads of life have to offer.

CHAPTER VI.

THE MAN ON THE BOX.

At 11:30 he locked up his book and took to his room the mysterious bundle which he had purchased from the stable.

It contained the complete library of a groom.

He stood before the pier-glass, and a compeion (not to say roguish) smile lit across his face.

"I mean my younger brother, a lieutenant in the army."

"Oh, then you have two brothers?"

"Yes," said Nancy.

"The dance is dying, Mademoiselle," said the count in French.

"Your arm, Monsieur. At revoir,

"Nancy."

"Poor Bobby!" Nancy folded her hands and sighed mournfully.

"It appears to me that his love affair is not going to run very smooth. But isn't she just beautiful, Charlie? What color, what style!"

"She's a stunner. I'm forced to admit. Bobb'll never stand a ghost of a show against that Russian. He's a great social catch, and is backed by many keepers."

"How unfortunate we old not know that she would be here! Bobby would have met her at his best, and his best is more to my liking than the count's. He has a way about him that the women like. He's no laggard. Some money ought not to count with Betty. She is worth at least $250,000. Her mother left all her property to her, and her father acts only as trustee. Senator Blank's house rents for $3,000 the season. It's ready furnished, you know, and one of the handsomest homes in Washington. Besides, I do not trust these foreigners"—taking a remarkably abrupt curve, as it were.

"There's two B's in your bonnet, Nancy," I laughed.

"Never mind the B's; let us have the last of this wretched truth."

This is not my own true story; so shall bow off and permit my hero to follow the course of true love, which is about as rough-going as a thoroughfare as the many roads of life have to offer.

CHAPTER VI.

THE MAN ON THE BOX.

At 11:30 he locked up his book and took to his room the mysterious bundle which he had purchased from the stable

Safety Deposit Boxes for Keitt.
Interest Paid on Time Deposits.

AMONG CRANBERRY MEN.

EDITED BY W. H. FITCH.

[All communications and special exchanges relating to this department should be sent to Cranberry Wood County, Wis.]

Wood County National Bank

Capital, $50,000
Surplus, $30,000

F. J. WOOD, President

D. B. PHILLO, Assistant Cashier

DIRECTORS: G. F. Steele, L. M.
Alexander, Thos. E. Knobell, W.
Roemer, F. J. Wood.

Commenced Business November

1, 1891.

ALL KINDS OF

COAL

PRICES RIGHT.

E. C. KETCHUM.

TELEPHONE:

Office, 164. Residence, 351

BUY LAND

you would invest your money in the safest way possible. We can direct you to many

Valuable Investments

In this section of the country, whether you are desirous of Renting, Buying,
Selling or Mortgaging property we can be of assistance to you.

Lots in Clevelands Addition $100

Payable $10 down, $5 each month

Taylor & Scott, Agents

Do you Want A Piano?

I handle some of the best,
the Cable goods. Among them are the

Conover,
Mason & Hamlin
Cable,
Kingsbury,
Wellington,
Mason & Hamlin Organs
Chicago Cottage Organ.

I can give you a few price and easy terms. If you want an instrument, talk the matter
over with me.

MRS. F. P. DALY.

Building Lots

I have a number of lots in the Daly addition on the east side, also in the Daly & Ritter addition on the west side which will be sold cheap, on easy monthly payments. A chance for a cheap home.

MRS. F. P. DALY

WHAT ARE YOU DOING?

IF YOUR JOB DOES NOT PAY
$20 PER WEEK

IT IS NO GOOD

We will give you a better one and furnish you the knowledge to make it good.

Send for our book to ADVICE-HOUSEKEEPING.

It is free and the job goes with it.

CHASE BROTHERS COMPANY

New England Nurseries, Rochester, N.Y.

Printing Foley's Honey and Tar.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated
Honey and Tar as a means of binding remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey
and Tar many imitations are offered

for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse to substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. John E. Daly, druggist.

Excursions via the Green Bay Short line to La Crosse on June 7th and 8th
for $8.00 for the round trip, limited
to return to and including June 11th.
This is for the annual meeting, Universal Commercial Travelers of Wisconsin.
Call up the ticket office phone 329, or residence, phone 124, for any information. All questions cheerfully answered. A. D. Hill, local agent.

CARVER CROP.

The assessors of Carver have completed an investigation of the number of barrels of cranberries picked in this town during the season of 1905, which shows that the yield was not half as large as that in 1901. In 1905 the number of barrels of the berries picked was 25,000, while in 1901 the number was 65,000. In the following list, included in which are the largest growers, it will be noted that in almost every case there was a big fall-off last year.

Barrels
1905. 1901.
S. Dexter Atwood, 329 417
Zephaniah Andrews 75 230
Frederick Anderson, 40 100
Atwood Bog Co., 3,000 1,675
Marcellus Atwood, 60 101
Arthur C. Atwood, 60 120
A. L. & C. E. Blumpus, 10 162
Ira B. Blumpus, 35 175
Ellis Curnish & others, 23 180
Carver Cranberry Bog Co., 60 185
Olas, Dominy, 40 188
A. C. Flinney & Co., 1,186 190
Federal Cranberry Co., 3,250 12,500

Henry Gammons Bog Co., 80 500
Harwich Bog Co., 50 1,225
Alonzo P. Hamlin, 275 1,620
Nelson P. Hamlin, 125 1,675
McFarlin & Swift, 25 1,500
Poleg McFarlin, 225 2,800
Mardock Bog Co., 30 1,600
A. B. Makepeace & others, 210 450
Old Town Bog Co., 400 1,682
Arcade Farmhand, 20 1,100
Wendy W. Robbins, 200 1,550
Isobah S. Shurcliff, 60 1,250
Alliston L. Shurcliff, 75 1,150
Alfred M. Shaw, 425 1,700
John F. Shaw, 131 2,800
Edward G. Shaw, 75 2,300
Swan Holz Cranberry Co., 2,250 1,901
Shawley & Benjamin, 228 1,400
E. E. Shaw, 200 1,400
Meadow Cranberry Co., 1,100 1,105
Z. A. Tillson & Son, 27 328
Frank F. Tillson, 113 1,215
Wilfred A. Tillson, 161 1,215
J. A. Vaughan & others, 123 212
C. T. Vaughan, 111 312
John A. Winberg, 688 178
Geo. Williams, 42 265
Jac. Welsh & others, 1,000 825
Harry E. Washburn, 72 1,900
Waukeeo Cranberry Co., 1,135 1,273
Fred A. Ward, 211 1,112
NON-RESIDENTS, Plymouth
Bowers & Russell, 500 1,112
John W. Churchill, 35 1,170
J. W. Churchill & others, 230 1,215
R. E. Holmes & others, 200 1,220
Edmund Weston, 60 1,220
Wareham, 1,100
J. L. W. Burgess, 67 320
John Fisher, 10 320
Thos H. Griffith estate 214 320
Robert Randall, 50 320
Waters & Palmer, 173 320
Middleboro 1,501
Win. A. Andrews, 280 1,501
Mahoneott Cranberry Co., 400 1,501
Alvin D. Vaughan & Son, 400 450
Boston, 1,100
Lucian Postleth, 377 464
M. W. Benjamin, 464 580
Watertown Cranberry Co., Watertown, 210 2,720
N. E. Churchill, Bridgewater, 280 1,040
Jonathan Edwards, 213 1,900
Danversport, 213 2,142
Chandler Bog Co., Spencer, 67 1,628
Myrick Bog Co., Spencer, 112 1,628

The investigation by the assessors into the question of cranberry raising shows that the crop of 1905 was not built up as that of the previous year. In the published list of the growers it is noted that in only one instance was the yield of 1905 greater than that of 1901.

As Carver is one of the leading producing districts of the country, the foregoing figures are both interesting and instructive.

Marketing.

A progressive movement for distribution of the crop, as matters appeared in the minds of growers the following from an address delivered by C. T. McCarty, president of the Florida State Horticultural Society is regarded as of timely interest:

"This is an age of organization, co-operation and consolidation. It is not sufficient that the horticulturist of today knows how to produce the fruits and the products of the soil, but he who knows as well how to successfully transport, distribute and market them."

"Perhaps the largest field for present and future investigation is the one covering the problem of marketing. This problem involves the element of business experience and study of the relations of the cost of production and transportation to the market value of our products; the study of the laws of supply and demand as applied to each particular product; a study of the value of organization in the securing of reasonable and satisfactory rates of transportation; of the proper distribution of the crop so as to prevent a surplus in one portion of the country and deficiency in another."

"The solution of these problems will call for the best thoughts, the most persistent effort and the most constant watchfulness of the thoughtful classes in our midst. Among the hopeful signs of the present are
the cordial relations existing between the producer and the carrier; between
the producer and the consumer."

"In these better understandings
of each other's relations we see the
future solution of these problems."

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

A. Lee of Neekoosa spent Sunday with relatives in the city.

John Alpine of Ladysmith is visiting relatives in the city for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McGlynn attended a dance at Pittsville Friday night.

Miss Gracie Brooks of Pittsville is guest at the Riverview hospital this week.

Mrs. Geo. Parker and daughter Addie spent Sunday with relatives in Rudolph.

Miss Genevieve Howe of Fort Atkinson is a guest at the Peter Love home this week.

Miss Katherine Smith spent Sunday at Neekoosa the guest of her sister, Mrs. Youngchild.

Mrs. John Birringer, jr., of Wausau was in the city a few days the past week visiting relatives.

Miss Rita Michaels entertained a few of her friends at the home of Mrs.
Rockwell on Tuesday evening.

The Eastern Star have their regular meeting Wednesday at which time several new members will be initiated.

The dance given at Ramthun's hall Saturday night was well attended and all present seemed to enjoy themselves.

Patrick Mullin of this city left on Monday evening for Minneapolis where he will make an extended visit with his daughter, Mrs. J. K. Cristy.

E. T. Beddoe has raised his shop on First St. about two feet on account of high water. He is also having a few other improvements made about the place.

The manufacture of cement blocks for the new Baptist church was employed last week, but the work has not progressed steadily since that time. They expect to do some more work this week.

Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Melville entertained a number of friends at their home on Thursday evening, the guests being the young ladies who waited on table at the social that was held at the church parlors the previous evening.

E. W. Ellis has purchased the residence of T. A. Lipke on High street and expects to occupy the place with his family in the near future. Mr.
Lipke has agreed to give possession of the place on the 1st of June. The property is one of the nicest residence properties in the city.

The Elk baseball team is doing some practicing these nights, and expect soon to be in condition to play a game. They are also figuring on getting suits this summer, so when they appear before the public they will be able to look right.

Last Friday evening the Lady Macabees held their regular review in the Worcester's hall. After the business session, the ladies enjoyed a social evening and dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. Geo. Hill and Mrs. Slusher were each presented with a silver souvenir spoon. There were about thirty-five in attendance.

Beeli Bealts Lundin.

Fred Bealts, the Marshfield wrestler, beat Hjalmar Lundin at Worcester, Mass., one night last week, winning two falls in 33 minutes. The first fall took 23 minutes and the next two minutes.

Newspaper accounts of the affair said that the contrast between the size of the two men was something amazing. Bealts weighing about 160 pounds, while Lundin went over two hundred. After they got to work, however, it was all Bealts' match and there was never a time when Lundin stood a ghost of a show of winning.

They are beginning to think down that Wisconsin wrestlers amount to something, and the Worcester papers had two column write-ups of the affair, in which they pronounced it one of the greatest matches that has ever been seen in that vicinity.

Celebrated Their Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kruger, who live near Kellner, celebrated their golden wedding last Thursday afternoon and evening, at which time a large number of their friends and relatives assembled at the home and participated in the affair. The ceremony of the occasion occurred at the Lutheran church at Kellner.
There was a very pleasant time for those in attendance.

Stomach Troubles.

Mrs. Sue Martin, an old and highly respected resident of Wisconsin, Miss Postlethwait, who has stomach trouble for more than six months. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured her.
She says: "I can now eat anything I want and am the proudest woman in the world to find such a good medicine." For sale by John E. Daly, Druggist.

WORD FROM THE EAST.

In a communication Pros. G. R.
Briggs of the Cape Cod cranberry growers' association says: "Last autumn frost warnings were sent to our growers by telephone from the Boston station, and were doubtless of considerable value. They enabled producers to make preparations for approaching cold weather. Owing to modifications of weather conditions caused by the proximity of many of our cranberry bogs to the sea it is probable that until sub-stations are located right on the Cape growers must depend mostly on their knowledge of local conditions and not rely wholly on bulletins issued from Boston."

New Jersey is heard from through Rhodoro Baid and Sons of Burlington county who state they consider the cranberry frost warnings by the weather bureau to be of great benefit to growers. They compliment the service given producers in their part of the country and the coming year.

The solution of these problems
will call for the best thoughts, the
most persistent effort and the most constant watchfulness of the thoughtful classes in our midst. Among
the hopeful signs of the present are
the cordial relations existing between
the producer and the carrier; between
the producer and the consumer."

"In these better understandings
of each other's relations we see the
future solution of these problems."

Disturbed the Congregation.

The person who disturbed the congregation last Sunday by continually coughing is requested to buy a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. John E.

Daly, druggist.

"In these better understandings
of each other's relations we see the
future solution of these problems."

A Letter From San Francisco.

John Mahoney, who is in the regular army, and is now at San Francisco, has the following to say concerning the ruined city in a letter to his people in this city:

"As we are settled for a while I have a minute time I will try and tell you some of the news of Frisco.
I have been from one end of the town to the other and the sights beggar description.

I am sending you a pamphlet of views and you can see part of the destruction in them but then they are only glimpse of the worst. For miles and miles you can walk (it is impossible to ride as most of the streets are filled with debris and only a few streets are open) the streets of Frisco and see nothing but heaps of rubbish and piles of brick, where at one time there were large buildings and fine houses. The authorities will not allow a fire in any of the buildings and the rich and poor alike have shacks in the street and do all their cooking and washing in them.

At present we are stationed in a large warehouse; one end we use and the other is occupied by the police department until we are initiated.

IN PRISON AT CHIHUAHUA THREE MEN AWAIT DEATH

HURLBERT, MITCHELL AND HARLE
UNDER SENTENCE FOR COLD-BLOODED MURDERS.

WERE GANG OF LIFE INSURANCE SWINDLERS

Killing of Their Victims a Part of the Scheme
by Which They Had Made Large Sums—Had Another Victim Marked for Death.

Chihuahua, Mexico.—Through a skein of plot and counter plot, that, if evolved by a writer of fiction, would have been considered extravagant, the story runs of the crime of the three men, Hurlbert, Mitchell and Harle, now under sentence of death here.

The crime for which these three men are to die is murder, an incident of their series of carefully planned life insurance swindles.

The particular company victimized is one of the greatest in the world, and only carelessness on the part of the plotters, resulting from over-confidence, saved it from a heavy loss.

Practically in its entirety the affair was told.

Commenced in 1902. It was in the spring of 1902 that a life insurance company was called upon to pay two death claims in Chihuahua, the first on the life of Harry M. Mitchell for $15,000 under a policy taken out by his sister, Helen Richardson, and the second on the life of James Devers for $10,000 under a policy taken out by his wife, Helen Richardson, the beneficiary. Mitchell had died on January 1 of that year, and Devers on March 23, and the agent in both cases had been C. T. Richardson, who had formerly been in the employ of the company at Chihuahua, but was not living in Dallas, Tex.

Now, life insurance agents in Chihuahua, Mexico, even those who subsequently move to a town like Dallas, do not, as a rule, support private clubs, nor drive out in style with motor coachmen and a butler or two. All these things were included in Richardson's establishment in Dallas, the great emplacement of a representative of the life insurance company, who went down from the El Paso office, where the check for the Devers policy had been forwarded, to look into the matter. These things were reported to the home office, and under the direction of Second Vice President Rhoades, Harry B. Bottome, a lawyer of New York, and a detective, wrote too carefully, Gray fell in with the game at once, and the two went back to Dallas, where Gray's lumber office became shortly their headquarters. Gray used to hear from Richardson how it wasn't really necessary to be a doctor in an insurance case, but simply to take a dummy before the medical man to pass the physical examination, and Richardson had just this dummy that filled the trap. Bottome and a detective led Harry into the smoking compartment and started a talk of the "bird degree" order that wound up that night with a 50-page confession implicating Harry in the death of Devers, and telling enough of the circumstances of Harry Mitchell's death to indicate how his "suicide" had been arranged.

So the months went on, and it was in October of 1902, the Gray-Richardson combination was now in good running order, and it was planned that they should go to El Paso, where Mason would take out $100,000 insurance in the name of Marshall D. Sangineto, an individual whom Richardson said he knew to be dying of consumption in Mexico. They were to make Gray the beneficiary of the policy, wait until Sangineto died, and then collect the $100,000. But a hitch arose. Richardson remembered one day that his friend Sangineto was a young man of middle age, whereas Mason was but a youngster of 21. Why not, then, have Gray take out the policy as Sangineto?

Seaboard National bank of New York, and it was this drift for $7,500, together with its endorsement to Richardson, that forms the first link in the chain of evidence that was to connect him with the crime.

So the search led back to Chihuahua, and when more light was sought on the manner of the deaths of Harry Mitchell and Devers it was found that in the first case death had occurred in the house in which Richardson and his wife lived and within half an hour after Mitchell had talked with a friend in the street, apparently in perfect health. This was hardly consistent with the theory of spinal meningitis advanced by Dr. Harle, the physician signing the death certificate, who happened to be also the physician who had examined each applicant for insurance upon his admission to the company. In the case of Devers it appeared that death had made its entry with a man of Devers' absolute immobility of living. Of Richardson nothing could be learned, except that he had succeeded in Chihuahua in the summer of 1901, with his wife, Helen Richardson, as an American looking for business opportunities in Mexico, and had secured an appointment as agent for the life insurance company in the territory.

Gray's Entry Into the Game.

It was at this stage of the case that there came to Dallas, where the Richardson's were living in style, a possessing citizen named W. J. Gray, a dealer in lumber lands, who opened an office of some sort and took a house in the best part of the town. The Richardsons happened to be in Hot Springs, Ark., at the time, and so Gray, the lumberman, who wasn't in any hurry to get his Dallas affairs moving anyway, took a trip over to the Arkansas resort and registered at the same hotel with the former life insurance agent, his wife and child.

The two got acquainted and became famous friends. Then one day Richardson, otto, marking Mason the beneficiary, and then collect in the usual way?"

Gray Marked for Murder.

Gray was not over anxious to make his death a possible source of profit to Richardson and Mason, but he consented to Sangineto for the purposes of the policy, and to own Mason as David Sangineto, his son and heir. After various introductions the policy was made out and the deal closed—apparently. What introduced a new element into it that Richardson and his friend Mason had not counted on was the fact that Harry Bottome and a couple of detectives had been keeping in mighty tight with Gray and incidentally had been doing a little work on the side, listening to conversations between Richardson and Mason when Gray wasn't around. It was in one of these conversations that Richardson gleefully remarked that Gray had been the lastest thing imagined in the Sangineto case, etc.

"We don't do a thing to him when we get him into the books."

Bottome and his men decided that masons had gone far enough. They laid their information before the district attorney of El Paso county, and warrants were issued for all three, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had played in the case. Gray, however, was soon released, and the next step was a charge filed in the City of Chihuahua and a couple of detectives, including Gray, for it was inexplicable that they had to have an exposure of the part when the lumberman-detective mill had

NO VALUES
There is no Rochelle Salt, Alum, Lime & Ammonia in food made with salt.

Calumet Baking Powder

*NOT IN THE BAKING POWDER TRADE.
It makes pure food.*

TRUE SOUTHERN CHIVALRY

Kentucky Colonel Didn't Apologize,
But He Came Very Near
Doing It

Many stories have been told of southern chivalry, but the plain speech is given a wider field by a recent publication of a history while visiting Kentucky recently.

According to the narrative, a genuine Kentucky colonel was so deeply annoyed at a most ungracious and somewhat unkindly reception of his wife, as he stepped on the feet of a rock-crested woman, of course, the woman expected him to apologize, but he did not do so, and when she asked him if he meant to repeat the offense, he said:

"And when I do, as though I had no mind to do it, I'll do it again." Then, doffed his hat and said: "When the good Lord was so gracious to us, to give us such a wonderful, smart-looking wife, I don't think that an apology will be needed."

The compliment was too graceful for the woman to resent, and all that followed was a smiling acknowledgment of the colonel's gallant speech.

BOY'S HEAD ONE SOLID SORE.

Hair All Came Out—Under Doctor
Three Months and No Better—Gutta-
cure Remedies Works Wonders.

Mr. A. C. Barnes, proprietor of a general store in Avoca, Oklahoma, tells in his weekly newspaper letter how a young boy of 12 years had lost his hair. His head was one solid sore, all over his scalp, his hair all gone, and he suffered greatly. He had been to many doctors, and the last time he had seen a doctor the hair had come back, but it had not grown out again, and was still as bad as ever. Gutta-cure remedies were used, and using Gutta-cure and Gutta-cure in hair growth salve, his hair grew again, and it has remained there ever since. He is a Christian Son and Daughter, and they are both safe and healthy. I cheerfully recommend the Gutta-cure Remedies for all cases of alopecia. A. C. Barnes, Avoca, Okla.

PHONETIC PHENOMENON.

How the "O" Came to Be Left Out in
the Modernized Spelling
of "Phenix."

There were rumors about spelling reform and the phonetic spelling of English words in general, relates Success Magazine. There is that very word "phenix," said one of the men: "that's a sample of bad spelling." The man who had the idea, between the phonetic system and the new, had spelled "phenix" with a "f" to let people know what they meant—so far as he was concerned.

He then drew his friend, "Fowler," up and on the "phenix" board. Fowler said:

"What word is this?"

"That word is so trimmed down, and saved off, and cut short, that it is done on a blank page." Then he said: "I think the language for the word is a beautiful word. That 'phen' might have been spelt 'foster' and the 'ix' might have been spelt 'ox'." That would be an excellent name. But the word "phonix" is coming. Look at this word! Phonix is coming everywhere now, and I remember it always used to say 'phenix'."

"The 'o' is gone. That's all."

The Other Way About.

An American, who had been a菩提子 (Buddha) in his previous incarnation, was born in a Washington, D.C., home, and people expressed their surprise that he could speak English. He said:

"A wise man's ways are far from us."

He was born in a Washington, D.C., home, and people expressed their surprise that he could speak English. He said:

"A wise man's ways are far from us."

FLOODS.

On the 1st of April, 1889, a flood inundated the city of Cleveland, Ohio, and caused great damage. The water covered the entire city, and the streets were filled with mud and debris. The water reached a height of 15 feet above the level of the river, and the city was completely submerged. The water caused great damage to buildings, roads, and bridges, and many people were left homeless. The city was declared a national disaster area, and the government sent in relief teams to help the people affected by the flood.

W. L. DOUGLAS
$3.50 & $3.00 SHOES

W. L. Douglas $4.00 Gilt Edge Line
cannot be equalled at any price.

Cant Hold On.

"Are you fond of sailing, Miss Grey?" "Oh, yes. At the very thought of the inspiring breeze, the straining sail, the rushing water, I can hardly contain myself."

"A wise man's ways are far from us."

One Kind of Investigation.

"You are taking a great deal of interest in this investigation," said the man.

"Yes, sir, but there was no one to be seen."

"I am a wise man's ways are far from us."

Two men in Texas are anxious to exchange a home and property down here for a residence in New York state. We are looking for a place where we can live when ever we can arrange matters.—Star of Hope, Published in Sing Sing.

Youth, the plastic morning of life, is a time when a man may do any work in character—Puff.

If neglected, then, or postponed, it will be well-nigh impossible to mould a perfect character.—Success Magazine.

A man may dirt with all the girls some of the time or some of the girls all the time, but no man has a right to mix with the girls in the time.—Chicago Daily News.

There is nothing like a catastrophe in life to accomplish something with, but anyone's a fool.—Chicago Daily News.

All things come to those who wait, but by the time they turn up, we have generally lost our appetite for them.

TRANSFORMATIONS.

Curious Results When Coffee Drinking Is Abandoned.

It is almost as hard for an old coffee lover to quit the taste of coffee as it is for a whisky or tobacco fiend to break off.

except that the coffee user can't get off and take up Postum Food Coffee without any feeling of a loss of the morning beverage, for when Postum is well boiled and served with cream, it is really better in point of flavor than most of the coffee served nowadays, and to the taste of the connoisseur it is like the flavor of the Java.

A great transformation takes place in the body within ten days or two weeks after coffee is left off and Postum Food Coffee used, for the reason that the poison to the nerves has been discontinued and its place is taken a liquid that contains the most powerful elements of nourishment.

It is easy to make this test and prove these statements by changing from coffee to Postum Food Coffee.

"There's a reason."

Seasonal.

He is a professor.

He is a going man as he can stand.

Com.

was the first joined in England with a

the salves or the oil case

the peace of his crew.

and lately

all sorts surpassed their before a great

the sum of their money were called for frightened

mothers.

He is named the espe-

the other strong not at weak, and the

the oil case

the peace of

his crew.

England,

is not carried home under 14 years ago

capital sum-itself.

There is no Rochelle Salt, Alum,

Lime & Ammonia in food made with salt.

Calumet

Baking

Powder

*NOT IN THE BAKING POWDER TRADE.
It makes pure food.*

TRUE SOUTHERN CHIVALRY

Kentucky Colonel Didn't Apologize,

But He Came Very Near

Doing It

Many stories have been told of southern chivalry, but the plain speech is given a wider field by a recent publication of a history while visiting Kentucky recently.

According to the narrative, a genuine Kentucky colonel was so deeply annoyed at a most ungracious and somewhat unkindly reception of his wife, as he stepped on the feet of a rock-crested woman, of course, the woman expected him to apologize, but he did not do so, and when she asked him if he meant to repeat the offense, he said:

"And when I do, as though I had no mind to do it, I'll do it again." Then, doffed his hat and said: "When the good Lord was so gracious to us, to give us such a wonderful, smart-looking wife, I don't think that an apology will be needed."

The compliment was too graceful for the woman to resent, and all that followed was a smiling acknowledgment of the colonel's gallant speech.

BOY'S HEAD ONE SOLID SORE.

Hair All Came Out—Under Doctor

Three Months and No Better—Gutta-

cure Remedies Works Wonders.

Mr. A. C. Barnes, proprietor of a general store in Avoca, Oklahoma, tells in his weekly newspaper letter how a young boy of 12 years had lost his hair. His head was one solid sore, all over his scalp, his hair all gone, and he suffered greatly. He had been to many doctors, and the last time he had seen a doctor the hair had come back, but it had not grown out again, and was still as bad as ever. Gutta-cure remedies were used, and using Gutta-cure and Gutta-cure in hair growth salve, his hair grew again, and it has remained there ever since. He is a Christian Son and Daughter, and they are both safe and healthy. I cheerfully recommend the Gutta-cure Remedies for all cases of alopecia. A. C. Barnes, Avoca, Okla.

PHONETIC PHENOMENON.

How the "O" Came to Be Left Out in
the Modernized Spelling
of "Phenix."

There were rumors about spelling reform and the phonetic spelling of English words in general, relates Success Magazine. There is that very word "phenix," said one of the men: "that's a sample of bad spelling." The man who had the idea, between the phonetic system and the new, had spelled "phenix" with a "f" to let people know what they meant—so far as he was concerned.

He then drew his friend, "Fowler," up and on the "phenix" board. Fowler said:

"What word is this?"

"That word is so trimmed down, and saved off, and cut short, that it is done on a blank page." Then he said: "I think the language for the word is a beautiful word. That 'phen' might have been spelt 'foster' and the 'ix' might have been spelt 'ox'." That would be an excellent name. But the word "phonix" is coming. Look at this word! Phonix is coming everywhere now, and I remember it always used to say 'phenix'."

"The 'o' is gone. That's all."

The Other Way About.

An American, who had been a菩提子 (Buddha) in his previous incarnation, was born in a Washington, D.C., home, and people expressed their surprise that he could speak English. He said:

"A wise man's ways are far from us."

He was born in a Washington, D.C., home, and people expressed their surprise that he could speak English. He said:

"A wise man's ways are far from us."

FLOODS.

On the 1st of April, 1889, a flood inundated the city of Cleveland, Ohio, and caused great damage. The water covered the entire city, and the streets were filled with mud and debris. The water reached a height of 15 feet above the level of the river, and the city was completely submerged. The water caused great damage to buildings, roads, and bridges, and many people were left homeless. The city was declared a national disaster area, and the government sent in relief teams to help the people affected by the flood.

W. L. DOUGLAS
$3.50 & $3.00 SHOES

W. L. Douglas $4.00 Gilt Edge Line

cannot be equalled at any price.

Cant Hold On.

"Are you fond of sailing, Miss Grey?" "Oh, yes. At the very thought of the inspiring breeze, the straining sail, the rushing water, I can hardly contain myself."

"I am a wise man's ways are far from us."

One Kind of Investigation.

"You are taking a great deal of interest in this investigation," said the man.

"Yes, sir, but there was no one to be seen."

"I am a wise man's ways are far from us."

Two men in Texas are anxious to exchange a home and property down here for a residence in New York state. We are looking for a place where we can live when ever we can arrange matters.—Star of Hope, Published in Sing Sing.

Youth, the plastic morning of life, is a time when a man may do any work in character—Puff.

If neglected, then, or postponed, it will be well-nigh impossible to mould a perfect character.—Success Magazine.

A man may dirt with all the girls some of the time or some of the girls all the time, but no man has a right to mix with the girls in the time.—Chicago Daily News.

There is nothing like a catastrophe in life to accomplish something with, but anyone's a fool.—Chicago Daily News.

All things come to those who wait, but by the time they turn up, we have generally lost our appetite for them.

TRANSFORMATIONS.

Curious Results When Coffee Drinking Is Abandoned.

It is almost as hard for an old coffee lover to quit the taste of coffee as it is for a whisky or tobacco fiend to break off.

except that the coffee user can't get off and take up Postum Food Coffee without any feeling of a loss of the morning beverage, for when Postum is well boiled and served with cream, it is really better in point of flavor than most of the coffee served nowadays, and to the taste of the connoisseur it is like the flavor of the Java.

A great transformation takes place in the body within ten days or two weeks after coffee is left off and Postum Food Coffee used, for the reason that the poison to the nerves has been discontinued and its place is taken a liquid that contains the most powerful elements of nourishment.

It is easy to make this test and prove these statements by changing from coffee to Postum Food Coffee.

"There's a reason."

Seasonal.

He is a professor.

Grand Rapids Tribune

BY DRUM & SUTOR.

Grand Rapids, Wis., May 3, 1906

Entered at the Post Office at Grand Rapids, Wis., as second-class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

One Year.....$1.50
Six Months.....75

Advertising Rates.—For display matter a flat rate of 10 cents an inch is charged. The columns in The Tribune are 28 inches long, making one full page $2.40 for insertion. All local notices, cards of thanks, resolutions of respect, and all notices of entertainments, where an admission fee is charged will be published at 5 cents per line.

Caucuses and Conventions.

(Waukesha Herald.)

The democrats throughout the state are certainly showing greater interest in party matters than they have for some years past. The platform convention to be held in June, in Milwaukee, has aroused the heretofore slumbering sensibilities of the rank and file of the entire party. The opportunity presented, to proclaim the fundamental doctrines of democracy, through regularly elected delegates chosen for this special purpose, is being embraced.

Caucuses are being arranged for in all the counties and good, old-time county conventions will be the result. It is up to the people to see that those men who are known to stand for the rank and file, for equal rights to all and special privileges to none, be sent to the state convention.

Every democrat ought to go to the caucuses and enthusiastic county conventions should be the result. The democrats of every township in every Wisconsin county should interest themselves in seeing to it that they have a voice in the coming county conventions. Aside from the matter of party pride, there is the important matter of party principle at stake.

That democratic state convention in June will be a memorable meeting.

DEXTERVILLE.

No late for last week

We are having nice weather now. The gardens are all planted and everything is lovely in this part of the town.

Mrs. Puttle and family left for Ingraham Tuesday, where she will join her husband and make her future home. We are sorry to lose our neighbor but our loss is somebody's gain.

We notice Irwin Kidd has a long face these days. Wonder what is the trouble Irwin. Hope you will not have a relapse.

Miss Anna Keenan is boarding at C. W. Blakley's while her mother is employed as milliner at Grand Rapids.

Mr. Simpson and wife and Mr. Johnson and lady went to Pittsville Tuesday evening to do some shopping.

A large crowd from here attended the dance at Batocock Wednesday evening. All report a good time. We should say so by the noise they made in the early hours of the morning on their way.

Edith Keegan is boarding at Mr. Steppen's, the esteemed section boss.

Mrs. Palouka of March, Wis., is the guest of Mrs. C. M. Blakley.

Mr. Farmer has moved into the house vacated by Mr. Puttle at the south side of the town, Main St. No. 3.

The Duxberryville ball players went to Pittsville Sunday to beat the Pittsville boys but were sadly disappointed.

I understand Bill Hines was taken one in a mobile Sunday night and was left in the barn. Bill most time when he was driven to you to your room and not to the barn.

Mrs. Baynton of Pittsville was a caller at Mrs. E. S. Hiles Tuesday.

The many friends of Mrs. Morrison were pain to hear of her accidental death which occurred on or about her arrival at Washington. There were thirteen or fourteen that formed the party that left here on the 7th of this month with the intention of making their future homes there. It seems they were obliged to make a transfer with teams in order to make connections at some point on their route, the team he was riding with, by some unknown cause was frightened and ran away, throwing Mrs. Morrison out and breaking some of her ribs and fracturing her skull, which caused death. Her daughter Mrs. Bronson, and family have the sympathy of their many friends in the loss of their mother.

John Mongan will plant the vacant lots of L. E. Miller's land on the east side of the river to cucumbers this season.

Mr. Bailey and family of Chile are visiting with Mr. Blakley's family for a few days.

The many friends of Homer Taggart were quite surprised to hear of his marriage. We are informed he has a charming little wife, and expects to locate out in Dakota, where he is at present. Homer you many friends wish you both a pleasant journey thru life.

Miss Agnes Keenan spent Sunday under the parental roof, returning to her duties Monday morning.

The Simpson family and John Kidd attended a wedding at Pittsville Sunday.

Our boys played ball at Veedum Sunday. Did not hear how the score stood.

Mrs. Will Armstrong of Neosho is visiting at the home of Mrs. Ella Hiles this week.

Mrs. H. Wingarten was a shopper in your city the past week.

Not as Rich as Rockefeller. If you had as much wealth as Rockefeller, would you be able to buy a better medicine for bowel complaints than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The most eminent physician cannot prescribe a better preparation for colic and diarrhoea, both for children and adults. This remedy has been shown to be superior to all others. It never fails, and when reduced with water and sweetened, is pleasant to take. Every family should be supplied with it. Sold by John E. Druggist.

OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

VESPER.

Talk about ball games. Vesper played a triplet ball game Sunday. Vesper bachelors vs. Vesper boys. First game, bachelors 3, boys 5; so end game, bachelors 2, boys 1; third game, bachelors 7, boys 6.

Stahl & Goldhamer completed their paint job Saturday.

The Vesper Brick & Tile Co. expect to operate their plant this week.

D. McVicker made a business trip to Pittsville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Dorn and Mr. and Mrs. O. Carlis are at Auburn to see the rains Sunday.

John Maxwell and family reside in our city now.

There will be a social dance at the Vesper opera house Saturday evening. Good music in attendance. All are welcome.

Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup is best for women and children. Its mild and pleasant taste makes it preferable to violent purgatives, such as pills, tablets, etc. Get the booklet and sample of Orino at John E. Druggist.

It is to be remembered that next Sunday will be another interesting day at the ball grounds if good weather prevails.

— • —

BIRON.

Mr. and Mrs. Perch of Sigel were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Klepan Sunday.

Misses Dolia and Fernelia Robert and Bertha Akey were shopping in our city Saturday.

Misses Gene and Ernest Crockett were seen in this place Sunday. There must be something quite fascinating here that attracts the young men.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Akey spent Sunday at Biron.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver DeMars drove thru this place Sunday.

Mr. A. LaVaque has had another attack of his lingering illness. Everyone is anxious for his recovery.

Only two more weeks of school! We need not wonder why all the children are wearing broad smiles, nowadays.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fisher and children spent Sunday at Biron, the guests of the latter's parents.

Mrs. K. Shattuck of Waupaca was visiting her sister, Mrs. A. LaVaque, the past week.

— • —

NEKOOSA.

(From the Times.)

The Nekoosa-Saratoga ferryboat will probably ready to go into the water by next Saturday, worn on its construction being now well under way under the supervision of H. E. Herrick. The boat will be 16 feet wide instead of 18 as was at first proposed, due to the delay which would occur in waiting for the material for a boat of that size, while the narrower boat could be commenced at once. It is considered that 16 feet is wide enough to accommodate the traffic and being that much smaller it will be a little easier handled.

Wednesday morning occurred the wedding of Mr. Lewis Stumet, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stumet, and Miss Mary Romanski, of Junction City, the happy event taking place at the Sacred Heart Catholic church in this city. Rev. Jno. F. Feldman performed the ceremony.

J. E. Brazeau returned Sunday evening from a trip to the state of Washington, where he spent several weeks at Asotin visiting his brother.

Mr. Brazeau enjoyed the vacation very much and it helped his health a great deal.

— • —

MEEHAN.

Miss Elsie Fagan of Big Flats visited the home of A. E. Pike last night.

M. H. Monger returned Thursday from Birn where he has been vacating the past week.

S. E. Warner's children are sick with measles.

Frank Merck of Bona Vista was here selling potatoes of which he has about eleven hundred bushels.

Our school is preparing to observe Decoration day in the usual way of speaking and singing. Mayor Hanna of Stevens Point and Rev. Miller will give an address.

Saul Goodlin of Linwood is finishing up the woolwork on Mrs. Cleland's house.

E. M. Cope of Plover was on business here Friday.

Miss Nellie Durfee returned to her home at Neosho Monday. Her grandmother, Mrs. Dean, accompanied her condition since Sunday.

Miss Elsa Fagan of Big Flats, who had been visiting at A. E. Pike's, went to Stevens Point Monday where she intends to work for a while.

Matt Houmire is breaking land for corn this week.

Miss Florence Manchester, Hattie Burke, Bess Bowersock and Isabel Notzley and Misses Beulie Burke, and Ray Netley of Stevens Point, Knowlton and Linwood attended the birthday party of Dennis Parks Saturday night.

M. Wallace, who is running the ditch for Mr. Egger, has moved in Chas. Shearer's new house below Bansons.

F. B. Seymour, Sept. of the G. B. and the roadmaster were looking over the road here last week.

— • —

VANDRIESSEN.

The senior class has just been organized and the officers elected.

The examinations of the 7th semester have just been finished.

Miss Kate Ring of the class of '06 taught in a district near Pittsville. She will soon return to the training school and receive her diploma.

Miss Anna Charney of class 07 is teaching near Oklahoma City at $40 per month with the promise of higher wages.

Medames Brown, Brown and Dusengen visited this school last week.

F. W. Warren and son Roy, went to Neosho last Friday.

Elder Harvey held services at the Baptist church last Saturday evening.

Sunday morning and Sunday evening a large attendance being present.

— • —

TRAINING SCHOOL NOTES.

The senior class has just been organized and the officers elected.

The examinations of the 7th semester have just been finished.

Miss Kate Ring of the class of '06 taught in a district near Pittsville. She will soon return to the training school and receive her diploma.

Miss Anna Charney of class 07 is teaching near Oklahoma City at $40 per month with the promise of higher wages.

Ward Weldon of this place will put his stock of goods in his store this week.

Mesdames Brown, Brown and Dusengen visited this school last week.

F. W. Warren and son Roy, went to Neosho last Friday.

Elder Harvey held services at the Baptist church last Saturday evening.

Sunday morning and Sunday evening a large attendance being present.

— • —

OUR COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

RUDOLPH.

Johnson Bros. have their new barn almost complete. Will Bannister and Mr. Young of Grand Rapids put on the finishing touch which makes it one of the finest barns in the town of Rudolph. Johnson Bros. are well pleased of their building.

The E. F. U. assembly of Rudolph gives an ice cream社会 and dance for the benefit of unfortunate men.

D. McVicker made a business trip to Pittsville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Dorn and Mr. and Mrs. O. Carlis are at Auburn to see the rains Sunday.

Stahl & Goldhamer completed their paint job Saturday.

The Vesper Brick & Tile Co. expect to operate their plant this week.

D. McVicker made a business trip to Pittsville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Dorn and Mr. and Mrs. O. Carlis are at Auburn to see the rains Sunday.

Stahl & Goldhamer completed their paint job Saturday.

The Vesper Brick & Tile Co. expect to operate their plant this week.

D. McVicker made a business trip to Pittsville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Dorn and Mr. and Mrs. O. Carlis are at Auburn to see the rains Sunday.

Stahl & Goldhamer completed their paint job Saturday.

The Vesper Brick & Tile Co. expect to operate their plant this week.

D. McVicker made a business trip to Pittsville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Dorn and Mr. and Mrs. O. Carlis are at Auburn to see the rains Sunday.

Stahl & Goldhamer completed their paint job Saturday.

The Vesper Brick & Tile Co. expect to operate their plant this week.

D. McVicker made a business trip to Pittsville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Dorn and Mr. and Mrs. O. Carlis are at Auburn to see the rains Sunday.

Stahl & Goldhamer completed their paint job Saturday.

The Vesper Brick & Tile Co. expect to operate their plant this week.

D. McVicker made a business trip to Pittsville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Dorn and Mr. and Mrs. O. Carlis are at Auburn to see the rains Sunday.

Stahl & Goldhamer completed their paint job Saturday.

The Vesper Brick & Tile Co. expect to operate their plant this week.

D. McVicker made a business trip to Pittsville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Dorn and Mr. and Mrs. O. Carlis are at Auburn to see the rains Sunday.

Stahl & Goldhamer completed their paint job Saturday.

The Vesper Brick & Tile Co. expect to operate their plant this week.

D. McVicker made a business trip to Pittsville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Dorn and Mr. and Mrs. O. Carlis are at Auburn to see the rains Sunday.

Stahl & Goldhamer completed their paint job Saturday.

The Vesper Brick & Tile Co.

IST

-Statistical
-Mach.

PIDS

the Hotel

saturday,

31st

de

ONLY

21.

E

to introduce series and its own exists to give above date, advice and complete a know your set is no ex-

You will be cured or cure, they will give you relief

quick relief prepared the human used of the out manner ed at once banded with the patient in vacation your family take up so to go it cannot certaining to the old remethe medical be to go to they do depending not have treatments near central out, Stomach, Constipation, Ma-Cancer, Bronchitis an entirely cases in all its lives or or consumed and will be have seen Thousands of being to come at costs you price, able bring it home for and analysis offer is will not be commenting trip will be cent will using treat-medicine a point be given to our system long diseases, and be-really have try to per-es without ely not be the Date

ersday,
Net

trains

railway

BAY

11 trip

May 29,

1900

the Date

ersday,

Net

Steamship

Agency

The cheapest and shortest route to

from Sweden, Norway, Dan-mark, Great Britain, Germany and Russia. Only 3½ days from land to land.

Steam Boiler Insurance, Fire,

Accident and Plate Glass

INSURANCE

"The American Bond-

ing Co. Will Go on Your Bond"

Do not buy your friends.

Abstracts of Title and

Real Estate Money to Loan

C. E. BOLES

Office in Lyons Block

Telephone 322

PILLS

by Frank

ENGLISH

MANUFACTURE

</div

GRAND RAPIDS TRIBUNE

BY DRUM & SUTOR.
GRAND RAPIDS, - WISCONSIN.

THE PRESIDENT IS ASSAILED

DEATH OF CARL SCHURZ.

Noted Publicist Passes Away at His Home in New York—His Career.

BITTERLY ATTACKED BY SENATORS BAILEY AND TILLMAN.

Former Immediately Refutes Charges of Betraying Friendly Democrats—Cause of Accident.

Washington.—There was a series of sensational incidents in the Senate Saturday afternoon, which reached a climax when President Roosevelt took the extraordinary step of telephoning a direct denial of charges made against him and his medical aid in the senate.

The events are perhaps without precedent in the history of the republic. Senators Bailey and Tillman violated unwritten law by making a direct attack upon the president in debate. The president shattered all tradition by making a direct personal reply to the charges made against him.

The incidents included the reading of a written statement by Senator Tillman charging the president with betraying the Democratic senators who had agreed to stand by him on the railroad rate bill with the understanding that the president would stand by his original position against an amendment permitting court review.

Following this Senator Bailey indulged in a violent attack on the executive. He charged that the executive had surrendered his position advocating "an effective measure," that he had abandoned his demand for earlier revision; that the president's arrangement of trusts had been made after his election and that before that time he had been "as silent as the grave" on the subject of regulating the railroads. The senator closed with this statement:

"Let us have no more talk in the Senate and talk in the country about this iron man. He is clay, and very soon clay at that."

Senator Tillman in his attack on the executive charged that President Roosevelt had asked ex-Senator Chandler to request that he rally enough Democratic votes to carry the Hepburn bill through and save it from any injurious amendments. He said he had conferred with the president and that after having fully filed his part of the agreement, the president deliberately backed down.

Senators Odell, Chapp and Carter defended the president against these attacks, the former pointing to the president as "the most superb moral leadership" the American people ever had. He also praised Senator Allison, who had, he said, been instrumental in getting through the whole amendment of the rate question.

Mr. Carter told he believed the president had been consistently in favor of the house bill.

Senator Lodge, speaking for the president, said that the president had denied an unkindly false statement of Senator Tillman attributed to ex-Senator Chandler that Senators Foraker, Knox and Spoorer were trying to defeat the rate bill by constitutional amendments.

A statement from ex-Senator Chandler was later given out by Senator Tillman in which the former reiterated the statements pronounced by President Roosevelt as "unqualifiedly false."

Washington.—A lengthy statement bearing on the rate bill incident in the Senate was issued by the White House Monday evening. The president says that his own opinion that Mr. Allison's amendment in no way changed the scope of the court review as provided in the original Hepburn bill is also the opinion of Attorney General Moody and Secretaries Root and Taft. He adds that as to none of the amendments did he say to Mr. Chandler or anyone else that he should insist upon having them in the bill as a condition of his approval.

Washington.—Senator Tillman Tuesday took issue with the president in the Chandler controversy, declaring that he felt under obligations to defend ex-Senator Chandler and place him right on the records. Senator Tillman refused the statement made by the president that he did not send for Mr. Chandler. Senator Tillman said the letter from Mr. Loeb to Mr. Chandler invited the latter to visit the president.

Chicago Traction Companies Lose. Chicago.—The traction companies in Chicago are left at the mercy of the city by the action of the United States supreme court. Monday in denying the motion of the street railway interests for a rehearing in the "90-year rights" case decided two months ago.

Guard Against Lynching. Crawford, Mo.—Sergeant John Reid, of the tenth cavalry, who killed Arthur A. Ross, night watchman, Sunday night, was taken to the county jail at Chadron for fear of an attempt at lynching, even though the jail was guarded by regular troops.

Anaconda Directors. Anaconda, Mont.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Anaconda copper mining company Wednesday the former board of directors was reelected, with the exception that George H. Church was elected in place of A. C. Burrows.

Grief with Killing Wife. Detroit, Mich.—Frank Emmett, a painter, is under arrest charged with killing his wife. Mrs. Emmett, who had sued for divorce, was getting dinner Tuesday when she was shot twice in the head from the open window.

Reconstruction at Stanford. Honolulu.—Acting Governor Atkinson will be reconstructed at once and by next September every building necessary to the welfare of the college will be in perfect condition. The work has already commenced.

St. Louis Guests Depart. St. Louis.—Congressmen Resendall, of Louisiana, Rainey and Lorimer, of Illinois, and other members of the executive committee of the rivers and harbors committee, departed for their homes Wednesday.

Frisco Banks Nearly Ready. San Francisco.—It had been reported that the clearing house banks of San Francisco that all San Francisco commercial banks will reopen for business on May 23.

Killed in Religious War. Cetinje, Montenegro.—There have been two days of fighting at the villages of Stojan and Barizine, in the district of Tachilja, between Muslums and Nizans on one side and Christians on the other. Several persons were killed or wounded.

Three Pines Are Lost. Berlin.—The Rundschau published a report of an accident at Reykjavik, Iceland, resulting in the loss of three cutters, the Ingvar, the Enitha and the Sophie Whistley.

Vesuvius Keeps Busy. Naples.—Prof. Matteucci, director of the royal observatory on Mount Vesuvius, telegraphs that the volcano is in slight eruption. Thick vapors and sand are being expelled and the electrical phenomenon continues, but he says the situation is not grave.

Memorial Church Dedicated. Richmond, Ind.—The Reid Memorial United Presbyterian church, erected here by Daniel G. Reid, of New York, at a cost of a quarter of a million dollars, was dedicated Sunday.

There must be something wrong with the Texas peach crop; it hasn't been killed a single time this season.

When a man talks through his hat a woman may be pardoned for laughing in her sleeve.

SPRING STYLES FOR THE TRUST MAGNATE.

Minneapolis Journal.

Keeler

MURDER RUSSIAN OFFICIALS

Admiral Is Slashed by Workman, White Police Captain Is Victim of Bomb Thrower.

St. Petersburg.—Vice Admiral Kuzmich, commander of the port, who was extremely unpopular with the workmen, was assassinated here Monday by workmen who made a demonstration he attempted to stop. The admiral was killed at a new admiralty works, a government institution. About 9:30 a. m. the admiral was emerging from a small shop in the works when a workman, who had been concealed around the corner of the building, leaped from a ledge into his back. The assassin fled into a large hall, where he was shot among the men employed there.

Warsaw.—White Police Captain Constantineff was standing with two police officers and four soldiers, a young man, three others, inside a room.

The explosion of the bomb hit Constantineff in pieces and severely wounded a policeman and six other persons. The assassin tried to escape and, firing his revolver, wounded a soldier. The other soldiers responded with a volley, killing the assassin and two other persons.

COAL STOCK GIVEN GRATIS

Mining Shares Presented to Railroad Officials to Secure Better Facilities.

Philadelphia.—Before the interstate commerce commission, George W. Crichton, general superintendent of the Pennsylvania division of the Pennsylvania railroad admitted that he had stock in several coal companies and that the stock had been presented to him. John M. Jamison, of Greenburg, Pa., president of the Jamison Coal & Coke company, testified that his company had presented Pennsylvania road officials with stock in his company with the object of securing better treatment and facilities from the corporation. He also said that Robert Pitcairn, now assistant to President Cassatt, had declined a proffer of stock, saying that he had received the money. Mr. Jamison bought the stock back from him for $5,000.

TURKS EVACUATE TABAH.

Reply of the Porte to British Not Entirely Satisfactory. But Trouble Is Over.

Constantinople.—Tabah has been besieged by the Turkish troops by order of the sultan.

The porto's reply on Friday to the British note agreed to the evacuation of Tabah and to the appointment of a commission for the delimitation of the boundary, but it was couched in such terms as to make it not acceptable to Sir Nicholas O'Connor, the British ambassador, and he has insisted on complete satisfaction being given before the expiration of the limit set by the British note. It is fully expected that this will be accorded.

Handless Body Found.

Grand Rapids, Mich.—The handless body of a man was found Wednesday in a cesspool in the rear of a Madison saloon, not far from where John Hickey, an overland traveler to Oklahoma, was sandbagged and killed recently. The body was brought to an undertaking establishment here. The absence of the head, it is believed, indicates that the man was murdered by an injury to the head, and that it was removed to prevent identification. No other marks of violence were found on the body.

Charged with Killing Wife.

Detroit, Mich.—Frank Emmett, a painter, is under arrest charged with killing his wife. Mrs. Emmett, who had sued for divorce, was getting dinner Tuesday when she was shot twice in the head from the open window.

Soldiers Did Not Kill.

Washington.—Gen. Greely has reported to the war department from San Francisco that the reported killing of a large number of people by soldiers during the San Francisco earthquake is incorrect.

Reconstruction at Stanford.

Anaconda, Mont.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Anaconda copper mining company Wednesday the former board of directors was reelected, with the exception that George H. Church was elected in place of A. C. Burrows.

Finance Dies Suddenly.

St. Louis.—Mo. George H. Goddard, 75 years old, a retired capitalist, formerly of the Valley National bank and who was a director of the old Laclede bank, died suddenly at his home Tuesday from heart disease.

Daughter Kills Her Father.

Cetinje, Montenegro.—There have been two days of fighting at the villages of Stojan and Barizine, in the district of Tachilja, between Muslums and Nizans on one side and Christians on the other. Several persons were killed or wounded.

In a recent month 78,000 letters and circulars that were improperly addressed were returned from the dead-letter office to the senders, and there are still on hand nearly three-quarters of a million to be examined.

Wyoming's call for marriageable women has been responded to so enthusiastically that it is understood that some of the boys are seriously considering the advisability of once more hiking for the frontier.

There must be something wrong with the Texas peach crop; it hasn't been killed a single time this season.

Memorial Church Dedicated.

Richmond, Ind.—The Reid Memorial United Presbyterian church, erected here by Daniel G. Reid, of New York, at a cost of a quarter of a million dollars, was dedicated Sunday.

There must be something wrong with the Texas peach crop; it hasn't been killed a single time this season.

When a man talks through his hat a woman may be pardoned for laughing in her sleeve.

RATE BILL HALF FINISHED

SENATE MAKING RAPID PROGRESS ON THE MEASURE.

Section Granting Commission Power to Fix Rates Proves to Be Stumbling Block.

Washington.—The Senate received another installment of Senator Bailey's version of the effort to secure an understanding between the Democratic senators and the president on the terms of the railroad rate bill, and in presenting it had included the memorandum of former Senator Chandler to the president on which the charges of bad faith against Mr. Bailey have been predicated. The Texas senator again arraigned his critics in sharp language.

Though modern medical science has decided that pneumonia is an infectious disease that need not terribly if one takes a little trouble to learn something about the disease. It is produced by a special microbe the existence of which is so common in the mouth of even healthy individuals that it is considered almost as a normal inhabitant of the upper part of the digestive tract. The saliva of a human being is likely to prove fatal to animals if injected subcutaneously because the special property of the germ is to produce pus whenever it gains entrance directly into the tissues. It does not produce a paroxysm inflammation in mammals, because it lies on the mucous membrane of the lungs, but does not gain an entrance into the tissues, it finds its way into the blood, but does not produce serious results unless the patient is much run down.

From these facts it can be seen that the problem of the method by which pneumonia is contracted is exceedingly difficult. The presence of the germ is not sufficient alone to produce the disease, but there must be a certain predisposition on the part of the patient, followed by the deposition of this germ on a mucous membrane.

Though the method of the distribution of the disease is not known definitely it is acquired by inhaling with crowds at a time when one is extremely tired, or when, for some reason or other, the interval since taking food has been longer than usual.

Dr. Anders, who is an authority on climatology, says in an article on lobar pneumonia: "The coincidence of exposing low temperatures, high barometric pressure, the direction and velocity of the wind and maximum mortality from pneumonia is so uniform constant as to suggest a close and direct relation between their combined influence and the progress of mortality from pneumonia. But," he adds, "the major influence by the seasons, however, is probably not direct, that is, by a lowering of the bodily tension, but rather by a change in the temperature resistance due to the low temperature, high barometric pressure, direction and velocity of the wind, etc., but indirect, namely, by bringing about the effective element in the causation, concentration and increased virulence of the specific poison in consequence of closer living in windows and lack of fresh ventilation."

From these facts we can see that the problem of the method by which pneumonia is contracted is exceedingly difficult. The presence of the germ is not sufficient alone to produce the disease, but there must be a certain predisposition on the part of the patient, followed by the deposition of this germ on a mucous membrane.

Though the method of the distribution of the disease is not known definitely it is acquired by inhaling with crowds at a time when one is extremely tired, or when, for some reason or other, the interval since taking food has been longer than usual.

Dr. Anders, who is an authority on climatology, says in an article on lobar pneumonia: "The coincidence of exposing low temperatures, high barometric pressure, the direction and velocity of the wind and maximum mortality from pneumonia is so uniform constant as to suggest a close and direct relation between their combined influence and the progress of mortality from pneumonia. But," he adds, "the major influence by the seasons, however, is probably not direct, that is, by a lowering of the bodily tension, but rather by a change in the temperature resistance due to the low temperature, high barometric pressure, direction and velocity of the wind, etc., but indirect, namely, by bringing about the effective element in the causation, concentration and increased virulence of the specific poison in consequence of closer living in windows and lack of fresh ventilation."

From these facts we can see that the problem of the method by which pneumonia is contracted is exceedingly difficult. The presence of the germ is not sufficient alone to produce the disease, but there must be a certain predisposition on the part of the patient, followed by the deposition of this germ on a mucous membrane.

Dr. Anders, who is an authority on climatology, says in an article on lobar pneumonia: "The coincidence of exposing low temperatures, high barometric pressure, the direction and velocity of the wind and maximum mortality from pneumonia is so uniform constant as to suggest a close and direct relation between their combined influence and the progress of mortality from pneumonia. But," he adds, "the major influence by the seasons, however, is probably not direct, that is, by a lowering of the bodily tension, but rather by a change in the temperature resistance due to the low temperature, high barometric pressure, direction and velocity of the wind, etc., but indirect, namely, by bringing about the effective element in the causation, concentration and increased virulence of the specific poison in consequence of closer living in windows and lack of fresh ventilation."

From these facts we can see that the problem of the method by which pneumonia is contracted is exceedingly difficult. The presence of the germ is not sufficient alone to produce the disease, but there must be a certain predisposition on the part of the patient, followed by the deposition of this germ on a mucous membrane.

Dr. Anders, who is an authority on climatology, says in an article on lobar pneumonia: "The coincidence of exposing low temperatures, high barometric pressure, the direction and velocity of the wind and maximum mortality from pneumonia is so uniform constant as to suggest a close and direct relation between their combined influence and the progress of mortality from pneumonia. But," he adds, "the major influence by the seasons, however, is probably not direct, that is, by a lowering of the bodily tension, but rather by a change in the temperature resistance due to the low temperature, high barometric pressure, direction and velocity of the wind, etc., but indirect, namely, by bringing about the effective element in the causation, concentration and increased virulence of the specific poison in consequence of closer living in windows and lack of fresh ventilation."

From these facts we can see that the problem of the method by which pneumonia is contracted is exceedingly difficult. The presence of the germ is not sufficient alone to produce the disease, but there must be a certain predisposition on the part of the patient, followed by the deposition of this germ on a mucous membrane.

Dr. Anders, who is an authority on climatology, says in an article on lobar pneumonia: "The coincidence of exposing low temperatures, high barometric pressure, the direction and velocity of the wind and maximum mortality from pneumonia is so uniform constant as to suggest a close and direct relation between their combined influence and the progress of mortality from pneumonia. But," he adds, "the major influence by the seasons, however, is probably not direct, that is, by a lowering of the bodily tension, but rather by a change in the temperature resistance due to the low temperature, high barometric pressure, direction and velocity of the wind, etc., but indirect, namely, by bringing about the effective element in the causation, concentration and increased virulence of the specific poison in consequence of closer living in windows and lack of fresh ventilation."

From these facts we can see that the problem of the method by which pneumonia is contracted is exceedingly difficult. The presence of the germ is not sufficient alone to produce the disease, but there must be a certain predisposition on the part of the patient, followed by the deposition of this germ on a mucous membrane.

Dr. Anders, who is an authority on climatology, says in an article on lobar pneumonia: "The coincidence of exposing low temperatures, high barometric pressure, the direction and velocity of the wind and maximum mortality from pneumonia is so uniform constant as to suggest a close and direct relation between their combined influence and the progress of mortality from pneumonia. But," he adds, "the major influence by the seasons, however, is probably not direct, that is, by a lowering of the bodily tension, but rather by a change in the temperature resistance due to the low temperature, high barometric pressure, direction and velocity of the wind, etc., but indirect, namely, by bringing about the effective element in the causation, concentration and increased virulence of the specific poison in consequence of closer living in windows and lack of fresh ventilation."

From these facts we can see that the problem of the method by which pneumonia is contracted is exceedingly difficult. The presence of the germ is not sufficient alone to produce the disease, but there must be a certain predisposition on the part of the patient, followed by the deposition of this germ on a mucous membrane.

Dr. Anders, who is an authority on climatology, says in an article on lobar pneumonia: "The coincidence of exposing low temperatures, high barometric pressure, the direction and velocity of the wind and maximum mortality from pneumonia is so uniform constant as to suggest a close and direct relation between their combined influence and the progress of mortality from pneumonia. But," he adds, "the major influence by the seasons, however, is probably not direct, that is, by a lowering of the bodily tension, but rather by a change in the temperature resistance due to the low temperature, high barometric pressure, direction and velocity of the wind, etc., but indirect, namely, by bringing about the effective element in the causation, concentration and increased virulence of the specific poison in consequence of closer living in windows and lack of fresh ventilation."

From these facts we can see that the problem of the method by which pneumonia is contracted is exceedingly difficult. The presence of the germ is not sufficient alone to produce the disease, but there must be a certain predisposition on the part of the patient, followed by the deposition of this germ on a mucous membrane.

Dr. Anders, who is an authority on climatology, says in an article on lobar pneumonia: "The coincidence of exposing low temperatures, high barometric pressure, the direction and velocity of the wind and maximum mortality from pneumonia is so uniform constant as to suggest a close and direct relation between their combined influence and the progress of mortality from pneumonia. But," he adds, "the major influence by the seasons, however, is probably not direct, that is, by a lowering of the bodily tension, but rather by a change in the temperature resistance due to the low temperature, high barometric pressure, direction and velocity of the wind, etc., but indirect, namely, by bringing about the effective element in the causation,

Safety Deposit Boxes for Rent.
Interest Paid on Time Deposits.

Wood County National Bank

Capital, - $50,000
Surplus, - $30,000

F. J. WOOD, President

D. B. PHILCO, Assistant Cashier

DIRECTORS: G. F. Steele, L. M.
Alexander; Thos. E. Nash, E.
Roemig; F. J. Wood.

COMMENCED BUSINESS November
1, 1891.

ALL KINDS OF

COAL

PRICES RIGHT.

E. C. KETCHUM,

TELEPHONE:

Office, 164. Residence 351

BUY LAND

You would invest your money in the best way possible. We can direct you to many

Valuable Investments

In this section of the country, whether you are desirous of Renting, Buying,
Selling or Mortgaging property we can be of an assistance to you.

Lots in Clarendon Addition $109
Payable $10 down. $5 each month

Taylor & Scott, Agents

Do you Want A Piano?

I handle some of the best,
the Cable goods. Among them are the

Conover,
Mason & Hamlin
Cable,
Kingsbury,
Wellington,
Mason & Hamlin Organs
Chicago Cottage Organ.

I can give you a low price
and easy terms. If you want an instrument, talk the matter
over with me.

Mrs. F. P. DALY.

Building Lots

I have a number of lots in the Daly addition on the east side, also in the Daly & Ring addition on the west side which
will be sold cheap, on easy
monthly payments. A chance for a cheap home.

MRS. F. P. DALY

WHAT ARE YOU DOING?

IF YOUR JOB DOES NOT PAY
$20 PER WEEK

IT IS NO GOOD

We will give you a better one and furnish the "Know How" to make it good.

Send for our circulars, "How to Get a Job and How to Get the Job You Want."

CHASE BROTHERS COMPANY

New England Nurseries, Rochester, N.Y.

Pleasant Foley's Honey and Tar.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated

Honey and Tar as a threat and long remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey

and Tar, many imitations are offered

for the genuine. These worthless

imitations have similar sounding

names. Beware of them. The genuine

Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. John E. Daly,

druggist.

Excursions via the Green Bay Short

line to La Crosse on June 7th and 8th

for $3.18 for the round trip, limited

to return to and including June 10th.

This is for the annual meeting, United Commercial Travellers of Wisconsin.

Call up the ticket office phone

309, or residence, phone 134, for any information. All questions cheerfully answered. A. D. Bill, local agent.

AMONG CRANBERRY MEN.

EDITED BY W. H. FITCH.

All communications and special exchanges relating to this department should be sent to Cranberry Wood, County, Wis.

Cavet Crop.

The assessors of Cavet have completed an investigation of the number of barrels of cranberries picked in this town during the season of 1905, which shows that the yield was not half as large as that in 1904. In 1905 the number of barrels of the berries picked was 25,107, while in 1904 the number was 66,214. In the following list, included in which are the largest growers, it will be noted that in almost every case there was a big fall-off last year.

Barrels.

1905. 1904.

S. Dexter Atwood, 329 447

Zephaniah Andrews, 55 410

Frederic Anderson, 10 109

Atwood Bag Co., 3,060 1,675

Marcus Atwood, 60 104

A. L. & C. E. Bumpus, 19 354

Ir. B. Bumpus, 35 126

Ellis Cornish & others, 23 162

Cavet Cranberry Bog Co., 50 175

Cavet Green Co., 610 812

Chas. Donnelly, 10 102

A. C. Flinney & Co., 1,186 1,382

Federal Cranberry Co., 2,263 12,500

Houry Cranberry Bog Co., 80 500

Harwich Bag Co., 50 1,231

Alonso P. Hamlin, 275 650

Nelson F. Mantor, 125 375

McFarlin & Swift, 25 120

Pedig McFarlin, 223 280

Murdock Bag Co., 35 600

A. D. Shakespeare & others, 210 170

Old Dull Bag Co., 100 682

Archie Patneau, 20 140

Ben. W. Robbins, 200 550

Ieholad S. Shurtleff, 60 250

Alliston L. Shurtleff, 75 170

Alfred M. Shute, 125 800

John F. Shaw, 131 800

Edward G. Shaw, 76 200

Swan Holt Cranberry Co., 2,230 2,902

Stanley & Boujouduin, 228 1,901

E. E. Shaw, 200 1,140

S. Meadow Cranberry Co., 100 1,105

Z. A. Tillson & Son, 27 369

Frank F. Tillson, 111 369

Wilfred A. Tillson, 161 328

J. A. Vaughan & others, 123 212

T. T. Vaughan, 111 178

John A. Winberg, 688 325

Goo. Williams, 1,000 227

Jas. Wohl & others, 1,000 227

Harry E. Westham, 72 210

Waukegan Cranberry Co., 1,015 273

Feed A. Ward, 241 NON RESIDENTS.

Plymouth, 1,112

Bowers & Russell, 500

John W. Churchill, 35 320

J. W. Churchill & others, 230 320

R. E. Holmes & others, 200 1,215

Edmund Weston, 60 1,200

Watertown, 1,601

J. L. Burgess, 67 1,601

John Fisher, 10 1,601

Thos. B. Griffith estate, 211 1,601

Robert Randall, 60 1,601

Waters & Palmer, 173 1,601

Waukegan, 1,601

Wm. A. Andrews, 280 1,601

Massachusetts Cranberry Co., 400 1,601

Alvin P. Vaughan & Son, 400 1,601

Boston, 400 1,601

Lucian Fosdick, 377 1,601

M. W. Bonjouduin, 486 1,601

Watertown Cranberry Co., Watertown, 210 1,601

N. F. Churchill, Bridgewater, 280 1,601

Jonathan Edwards, 1,900 1,601

Danielsport, 213 1,601

Chandler Bag Co., 1,900 1,601

Spencer, 67 2,142

Myrick Bag Co., 112 1,601

Spencer, 112 1,601

This investigation by the assessors into the question of cranberry raising shows that the crop of 1905 was not half as large as that of the previous year. In the published list of 1905 it is noted that in only one instance was the yield of 1905 greater than that of 1904.

Cavet is one of the leading producing districts of the country, the foregoing figures are both interesting and instructive.

Marketing.

A progressive movement for distribution of the crop, are matters uppermost in the minds of growers.

The following from an address delivered by C. T. McCarty, president of the Florida State Horticultural Society is regarded as of timely interest:

"This is an age of organization, operation and consolidation. It is not sufficient that the horticulturist of today knows how to produce the fruits and the products of the soil, but he who knows as well how to successfully transport, distribute and market them.

"Perhaps the largest field for present and future investigation is the one covering the problem of marketing. This problem involves the element of business experience and study of the relations of the cost of production and transportation to the market value of our products; the study of the laws of supply and demand as applied to such particular product; a study of the value of transportation of the crop to the market; the study of weather conditions in the cranberry growing districts."

WORD FROM THE EAST.

In a communication Pres. G. R. Briggs of the Cape Cod cranberry growers' association says: "Last autumn frost warnings were sent to our growers by telephone from the Boston station, and were doubtless of considerable value. They enabled producers to make preparations for approaching cold weather. Owing to modifications of weather conditions caused by the proximity of many of our cranberry bogs to the sea it is probable that until sub-stations are located right on the Cape growers must depend mostly on their knowledge of local conditions and not rely wholly on bulletins issued from Boston."

Mr. W. H. Fitch of the East.

Heineman Mercantile Co.

The solution of these problems will call for the best thought, the most persistent effort and the most constant watchfulness of the thoughtful classes in our midst. Among the hopeful signs of the present are the cordial relations existing between the country and the city; between the producer and the carrier; between the producer and the consumer.

"The solution of these problems will call for the best thought, the most persistent effort and the most constant watchfulness of the thoughtful classes in our midst. Among the cordial relations existing between the country and the city; between the producer and the carrier; between the producer and the consumer.

"The solution of these problems will call for the best thought, the most persistent effort and the most constant watchfulness of the thoughtful classes in our midst. Among the cordial relations existing between the country and the city; between the producer and the carrier; between the producer and the consumer.

"The solution of these problems will call for the best thought, the most persistent effort and the most constant watchfulness of the thoughtful classes in our midst. Among the cordial relations existing between the country and the city; between the producer and the carrier; between the producer and the consumer.

"The solution of these problems will call for the best thought, the most persistent effort and the most constant watchfulness of the thoughtful classes in our midst. Among the cordial relations existing between the country and the city; between the producer and the carrier; between the producer and the consumer.

"The solution of these problems will call for the best thought, the most persistent effort and the most constant watchfulness of the thoughtful classes in our midst. Among the cordial relations existing between the country and the city; between the producer and the carrier; between the producer and the consumer.

"The solution of these problems will call for the best thought, the most persistent effort and the most constant watchfulness of the thoughtful classes in our midst. Among the cordial relations existing between the country and